FOREWORD

*"As it now comes into focus, the Eclipse of the Universe has begun."
St. Germain*

A dense blanket of lies, myths and superstitious beliefs has been cast over this planet as a result of conscious actions by tyrant gods, who had separated themselves from the prevailing harmonics of the Universe as they began to exploit and exercise ruthless control over their brethren. They removed themselves from positive vibrations of love and a deep sense of obligation to be "our brother's keeper" and led by a desire for power over their fellow man created an environment, where no one can blossom in the fullness of his or her creative power in happiness any more.

Seeing that such conditions of happiness had been removed from Earth many millennia ago, and seeing that aforementioned "gods" have succeeded in the recruitment of allies of the human species, and this in order to effectively tighten the noose around the necks of their brethren en masse through the creation of subservience to basic needs as well as fear, the equinoxal time has now come for a correction of such artificially created imbalance in the Universe of Terra. ITS RESTORATION TO ITS PROPER OWNERS AS WELL AS THAT OF ITS ORIGINALLY INTENDED FUNCTION AND GLORY HAS COME.

The writing before you, the reader, is of several purposes. Having received the information verbatim from higher-dimensional entities, whom we perceive to be the rightful owners of this planet, we recognize the purpose of this message to be of destructive force to misconceptions and speculations around pyramids and sundry other issues of human civilization.

These pages also contain a generous invitation to all, to align themselves with the Brotherhood of Light. That Brotherhood has taken all preparations necessary for the safety of their friends when mother Earth decides to cleanse herself from pollutions of all descriptions. This will be a Day when at last the "tables are turned" against all who have contributed to her demise.

The style of writing is somewhat unfamiliar to ours, and therefore we recommend to those struggling with its message, to re-read and take time for proper assimilation. Enjoy.

INTRODUCTION

Adoni

Tuesday, April 26, 1994

The pyramidal structures are influenced by certain fundamental apetoirs leading into the centre of the galaxy. There is much to disclose and we are readying ourselves for these beautiful truths as have been laid out or patterned by those even more evolved than ourselves. However, we do have all these facts on record which we will simply pass on to you at a more prominent time.

The pyramidal era actually began 42,000 years distant past, as you would see it. We do believe a typewriter would be more adequate, so please feel free to take this time to prepare yourselves.

As we proceed we will make it known that these tenets of application begin on an ongoing basis. Now to get down to work. Make sure you do no more than type. We will provide the words and all the necessary information.

Eons ago when this great and wondrous Earth was catapulted from the depths of the Andromeda Galaxy, or as some would say, the Fourth Quadrant, there did arise a nucleus of beings, who at the time were little more than directional applications as regarding the efface of civilization. Following this, came the Dawn of Civilization as we know it, with these great beings captivating the whole texture of Earth civilization. They put their brand on the horizon of affirmaty, or rather, their sequence of life style as they perceived it, on humanity itself. As they proceeded in their evolution, minions of free space resolved to effect the contour of the land. Due to the entirety of creature habits the worms of the galaxy proceeded with due course toward the blinding of the inhabitants of planet Earth. This is where the pyramidal era actually began.

Even at that time there were nomads - those souls who even at that time did progress. These nomads did play a vital role in the equinox of the vibrational frequency due to the abhorrent sound structures which emanated the wounds of the Earth.

We will continue tomorrow. There is much to conclude before we wrap up.

EQUATORIAL POLAR REGIONS

Wednesday, April 27, 1994

4:21 pm

The equators at that time were purely functional polar regions. Their effect on the lives of the inhabitants of Earth were conducive to their growth. Every time the sun would shift its axis, around the moon great substances would occur at an Earth or subservient level. Here we do intend to facilitate the use and properties of the pyramids, which, due to their extensive properties, did of course contribute to the usefulness of the functioning of both equators. This ties in with no less than the illustration concerning the functioning, which was no less than intricate in nature to the positioning of the polar factions connecting north and south.

This restructuring of both society as well as the fluctuation of the polar regions served to form the best of two worlds, conclusive of the fact that the Helions were getting ever closer.

BEGINNING WITH PYRAMIDS

As time passed, the construction of the pyramids were consigned to a minion of workers who were skilled in the craft of synchronatics. Trial pyramids were first allotted, and due to the extensive rock formations around, it was tried and concurred that the best and easiest way to proceed with the construction was to build at a level befitting the precision of typical worldly structures. Here we will enter the trial and usefulness of the nomads who, due to their curious ways, did seem to manufacture to the specific requirements the fitting of the structures in conjuncture with our brothers who guided and directed them.

With this little bit of background we hope that you will indeed have acquired a little bit of background into the era of the pyramids. There, of course, is much written on the subject of beginning world evolution, therefore we will conclude at this point and leave that discussion to others more capable and proceed on with our story about the pyramids of that age.

WE INTRODUCE THE THREE

Do continue, little one, for we are just beginning. You will get the hang of it in a short time. Let us take this time to introduce the other Three who will be working on this project with us. Dear Master Germain will be joining us with his great knowledge of the Universal properties. We also are blessed to have at our side our beloved Sananda, who is attributing to the concern of the societal changes which occurred during specific millennia as well as contributing his extensive knowledge with regards to the overall functioning of these time periods (of which he is, of course, very familiar). Lastly, but nonetheless not the least, there is Adrigon of the White Winds. Adrigon extends his sincere wishes and deep desires toward the fulfilment of this material. With these complimentary remarks there will be no need for further interruptions on our part, and now we can all rest assured that this work will proceed unhindered. Sela. ADONI.

Take one short break now, Seila, and position yourself for further intake in about 15 minutes.

(Editor's note: At the time Adoni introduced the three authors of the book he must not have been aware of either Gabriel's or Raphael's intent to contribute to the contents as found in Chapter Seven. Both are Archangels of higher order in the hierarchial structure of the order of the Universe).

THE HELIONS

The Helions were a known nomad tribe who at their best did approximate the sinking of our dear Atlantis many millennia later. They came from the far reaches of the galaxies and did always attain to acquire an innate knowledge of things to come, or rather future events. This is, of course, known to few and it is our reasoning that these major events concur with the extraterrestrial time line as known and alluded to in their section of the quadrant. These Helions were, regardless of their form, the most desirable of all, as we do point out attributes in regards to their precious journeys across the galaxies in their efforts to sustain other life forms. They were not always successful in their endeavour, but come what may, they did indeed hold the attention of the many onlookers from all efforts of the solar systems with great interest at their endeavours nonetheless. These Helions were a striking people with the enchanting trait most admired throughout the Universes and galaxies, which in all realities was Love. This particular trait endeared these peoples to our hearts because of the simplicity of their natures and the determined unwavering and unrelenting desire to accomplish that which few other cultures at that time felt their lot to achieve. In other words, they began and tried the impossible: to restructure on this planet the necessary items and structures used by so many other planets, which had been in possession of them for eons. The difficult program here, of course, which we so admired them for, was the most difficult of all tasks to incorporate, and that was for an underdeveloped race to be in possession of art forms which were light years ahead of their evolution. Little is said, of course, before this time, and we wish to set the record straight, so keep tuned into this particular broadcast.

As you are quite new to this intense form of translation, Seila, we bid you adieu for now. Greetings from ADRIGON.

Greetings from Adrignon.

It is well that all be seen in perspective of application when concluding the essence of Eternal Life.

I just thought it would be a good idea to interject an idiom into our discussion before we really get on the road.

Now back to these Helion gods. They were large in stature, but unlike the gods which took humans of the female gender for wives, they were not of a pretty countenance. However, as we like to say, it is always the inner beauty which wins out in the end. These nomads were depicted through time - yes, we call them nomads, because such as who roams the galaxies at their own free will or design and who attribute the likelihood of success upon their own individual endeavours, have indeed earned this precedious title. So to pick up where I left off - these nomads of high integrity were to play a vital part in the significance structure of not only the pyramids but, of course, in the events of world affairs. Ah, so this comes as a bit of a surprise to you does it? You thought that only the gods of the tyrannical nature were responsible for chaos, well, we can assure you that there is much more here than meets the eye.

THE ORDER OF PYRAMIDAL PLACEMENT

When the Helions had met at several of their council meetings, they finally concluded that sufficient material was needed in order to implement the state of the equinox, which, by the way, was even at that early date beginning to lose its balance. Here came the necessity of the structuring and building of the pyramids; firstly being structured in eastern Asia before the southern Americas. It seems that it was believed, and may still be believed, that all pyramids were begun in Atlantis, Lemuria, Egypt and other renowned places. This is indeed a myth. I will tell you why. You see, Atlantis, Lemuria and Egypt, for example, were the crossroads into many civilizations by way of conduit functions. This we will explain later, so keep in mind these words.

In order that these prime areas of Earth be held to their truest purpose or order of reliance, of which everything was held in its truest perspective, there needed to be a beautiful balance in accord with the highest order of the Earth entity itself. In other words, there needed a few sample or practice sessions in themselves on the construction of these new pyramids. And yes, there are minions of pyramidal structures throughout the galaxy, both here and in other dimensions, though *not every Universe runs by these same standards or methods of functioning. The reason that we call these pyramids new and their application of structure a new project in the midst of a multitude of other pyramids, which almost grow like mushrooms on manure, is that it was a first for these nomads to have the opportunity to succeed in their endeavours, which in the past they did forfeit the right of succession due to their unwillingness to devise with reason all proper dimensions accorded to the upright creation of these living entities. This then was part and parcel of their evolution. (Here we speak of the nomads, not the Helions nor the beloved pyramids). It is little wonder then at our outrage, when down through the eons we find that our beloved brethren and co-workers, though in another form, were not only ransacked but pillaged and worst of all, raped.

We know that these are harsh words, but even in our realities we do not allow this abhorrent misuse of another living creature. This may be hard to swallow for some, but bread and butter is our living too, even though we may succumb to our income and identities in a different way through different solutions.

I will break here for the time being, and graciously allow the much more qualified report of our beloved Master and teacher, or should I say master teacher, to be more accurate. Adieu for now, Brethren. I am ADRIGON. (3:13 pm).

PHASE TWO

THE STRICKEN HOUR OF CONSCIOUSNESS

Lord Sananda

Friday, April 29, 1994

3:16 pm

Greetings, my beloved comrades. I am indeed of a volatile nature when it comes to the spiritual creation of destruction in regards to our friends, the pyramids. For eons they have not only served humankind aptly, but in the past have shown themselves to hold the highest regard for other life forms as well as their own. When we positioned others to caretake of these pyramids (one brethren per large pyramid), it was the sole function of that brethren to inform us, who were on that specific project at that time period, of any obtrusive behaviour toward the beautiful structures. Indeed, we did not expect such callous behaviour, which did in effect cause the dismemberment of these brethren pyramids. All life forms in the galaxies within the specific universes have at one time or another contributed to the working out of their karma by attributing to the wellness of the structuring of the pyramids. I cannot stress enough to you, dear ones, just the amount of compassion and endearing love and respect that I myself as well as Germain and many others hold for these most delicate entity structures. It would break our hearts, so to speak, if we allowed further destruction of any of the remaining pyramids. Therefore, it is forbidden for mankind to intrude himself upon the mind and life of these prisoners of darkness. But this will not be for much longer. Tomorrow we will start with a clean slate and begin our building and wayshowering of a new but capable era.

It has been so good to find we work together, Seila. Rest now, for future endeavours have tremendous repercussions, and all this must be recorded for the benefit and education of the peoples which are still remaining on the dying and stricken planet, which we know as Earth from the Andromeda sector. I am that I am, SANANDA, at your service. (3:38 pm).

GERMAIN AT BAY

Lord Germain.

Saturday, April 30, 1994

12:48 pm

Greetings, comrades! It is a new day. Don't think, just because we sometimes seem to use a new text, that we have forgotten or gotten off the beaten path of our work or project. We are most exuberant! Let us now put in format an equation which will, as you will see, relate to the information put on data bank on the White Winds.

The far extremities of the Universe are indeed subject to the malfunctions of the overall essence of creation.

Thus far it does allow us to integrate our further imaginings of the essence of reality which is, of course, to our proven benefit.

This, my dear friends, is merely an introduction to the merits of humankind, and indeed this does all tie in to the involvement of the complete context of evolution as we understand it. I am GERMAIN.

ACT ONE

THE AWAKENING OF THE DAWN

Lord Sananda

It has long since passed that the first begotten of the creation was channelled along the lines of the equinox in subjection to the ruling of the external substance of the Creator. You will hopefully glean a few of these internal, as well as external truths which will be dotted throughout this report. We only wish that you succeed in your affiliation of the cosmetic purpose. Indeed, no pun intended. Here we will turn the next portion over to Adrignon, our futuristic brother. SANANDA

WAYSHOWERS

Adrignon

Saturday, April 30, 1994

8:04 pm

It is a bright day indeed, for we, who are wayshowers, will learn to possess the strict ability of conscience due to our lives' long endeavours. We do intend to pick up from yesterday at this time. Seila, little one, this is designed to improve and heighten your conscious awareness too.

THE TRUTH THAT UNLOCKS FREEDOM

Lord Sananda

The building or restructuring of the pyramids, as we like to put it, will, for the most part, be in conjunction with our ability to refer to you the truths as well as designs, and to enhance your ability to comprehend both our methods as well as tactics. Do not concern yourself with the spelling, little one, just flow with the sequence of compositioning our letters to you.

If tacticians were the rule of the era, so then were the builders of the holy building acquiring the trematice absence of futility with all resources and absolute hierarchy of ambience. Know, that from the onset of creation there has always been a great desire to unfold an ambience of truth with regards to the secondary action of all races, whether they be in dimension, galaxies, or other solar systems. Now that I have begun with what to you may seem rather complicated but in reality is simple truth, you may wish to permit yourself to seek and relay material beyond the perimeter of your consciousness. For those of you who find this a little above your heads, fear not and stay tuned, for we will encroach on you a desire to learn those truths of history which transcend the ages through history. These truths, of course, will be written henceforth with the common denominator in place for the essence of understanding to the placement of each and every individual. Not one reading these materials will be left out in their understandings, and this is equally important that I say this, because it has always been known that throughout the Universe there is truth unveiled at every level for each of those on their upward journey who are seeking. Some will, of course, gain more than others, but this just depends on the height of each individual's consciousness. It will be for some like treading between the lines. Selah. SANANDA at your service.

EVENTIDE COMES IN WITH A BIG BANG

Adrignon

The showing of fertile rain upon the factions, who resided upon the Earth plane, did leave those beings rather hindered in their outlook as they began with the most difficult task of construction of the 20 foot high pyramids. Though these nomads had the serviltile to explore new concepts, they were outmoded in their deliverance of Akashik papers to the builders, who in other realms, were of the nature of design modes. Nonetheless, it did occur to one or two of these pirates that if they would only, if not only for their own glory, settle in a mode of transportation, they would likely shock the world that they at least knew with their brilliance of design that which they themselves had actually not done. But with their skill, which had preceded their intellect, they did finally succeed in deceiving the entire populace, that they themselves had automatically endeavoured, strove and by their own design had indeed accomplished the said immediate pattern of the ambience or pyramidal structure. What a lie unfolded! It was with this tyrannical episode that we, the Lighted Brotherhood, did succeed in our final battle with the beginning equinox, successfully attacking the cape of destruction of dimensions. In other words, we did penetrate the cloak of darkness which was falling with rapidity along the corridors of global construction. This did not mean, of course, that we succeeded in the first way against the covering which was falling at such a rapid rate, that not only could the Brotherhood not control it, but even the distant equinox was not alluded to in its resources. From the Data Banks of the White Winds. Adrignon downloading.

Take time now, Seila, to understand. Your function in this project is somewhat a little more extraordinary than you had first thought. Take your break now and allow editing to be started to completion, which is, of course, the first step which will remain unhindered by the strain of concentration. Again we advise you to not worry about your spelling as we do realize that it is rather difficult to listen intently to us while keeping your mind fully occupied with nothing in order to portray no hindrance to us. It is late. We bid you adieu. ADRIGON.

THE SERVITUDE OF THE NATION UPON THE EPOCHS

Adoni

Saturday, April 30, 1994

9:16 pm

We do continue with, of course, Germain, who is most affluent in his infrastructure of the certain recommended galaxies. He, of course, has the great use of his astronomical telescope which he has at his leisure kept positioned until the fullness of the equinox comes into balance. This is, as you might have by now imagined, not the norm in telescopic activity by our dear St. Germain. On the contrary, we have provided you with a relayance which is quite out of the ordinary. Anyway, forgive me for rambling on. It really is not my style, but at this time I do in turn take advantage of the eventide and its unlimited resources. To you, Germain, do I attribute this next section. ADONI

GERMAIN GIVES PRECEDENCE TO UNDERSTANDING

Lord Germain

Brethren, I most undoubtedly have the best part of the task at hand, and it is most befitting to portray the lapse of the animal kingdom, which, at this time, we give our unequivocal attention. At this time there is much that we will strive to uncover for those of you who are the more avid readers. Not all facets of humanity were striving toward accomplishing their goal through mediation with the lower kingdom, as you would recognize it. You do need to understand that not everything will appear in complicated form, but rather will permeate itself in its truest form. Salute. French, I prefer. Regardless of the shift in nature, as we most certainly refer to the conjunction of the better or greater beings, the much lower entities known as human, which we, of course, did plant at a rate of 20 per acre at a time in order to release the faction of darkness into the light, did become evident that the structure of all systematic counselling did begin. This, as you will see, all plays an important part in the systematic game of everyone's evolution, for all things go hand in hand. Thus we will close for now, dear ones, in order to allow you the time needed to contemplate this material. As we have said or stated in recent past, this material is really only for those, who with unequivocal justice feel the need to seek what is their inheritance through truth. I am GERMAIN. It is now recorded to be Sat. 30/04/94 9:29 pm.

ACT TWO

TWO DIALOGUES

Lord Sananda

Monday, May 2, 1994

In conjuncture with what we have just said, it is going to be supplanted in the epochs of reality the very inclination of purpose which we, as separate individuals, continuously strive for. Let us now begin a new section. We have, of course, with undue tendency, strived at our leisure to enhance the opportunity due to the changing of implements of the gravitational pull. Let us in all seriousness conquer the illusion of the reality that, what you have as a human race been supplanted in and upon your consciousness is the iniquity of time. Adieu. I am that I am, forever. SANANDA.

LIGHT EQUALS DARKNESS

Lord Germain

LIGHT EQUALS DARKNESS. This is the most fundamental truth of all time. So easy in both its application as well as foreboding of lithicity. We no more boast of an interlude of fact that we would conjure up the epochs of time, space and dimensions. However, you have been so patient that we would all like to thank you for your unequivocal attention, whose span certainly outlasts the best of the inhabitants' at times. Therefore we congratulate, you with sincere hindrances, according to the light which you will receive. We hope this prelude to the meat of our report will help to form the texture of dramatics, for the beginning of our story is now begun. Salute. GERMAIN.

CHAPTER ONE

THE STARS OF THE EQUINOX

Lord Sananda

Lord Sananda to begin. Dear children of the equinox tide. I come to you with great comfort and glad tidings, as you will soon realize, that what we offer by way of information with a somewhat gravitational pull, will indeed enhance the waves of compassion for this planet creation, Earth.

The disposition of certain functions with the quadrant is, and will always be, subject to the informed upon the consciousness of time. Willpower really has very little to do with the epochs but in conjuncture with time and with the spontaneous dealings of the latitudes versus the equatorial points, we will adjust the text in adherence with Universal Laws and standards, if for no other reason than to sanctify the truths of the matter in order that you, the reader, may extract each and every minion of truth without fear of running into a latent time warp with regards to your own standard of consciousness. Seila, break now as we have other activities at present to attend to. Do not look for us until later in the day. I am SANANDA.

9:03 pm

Sananda continuing. Hello, little one. We meet with you, for once again we wish to elaborate on the pure untarnished truth concerning many matters.

(I, Seila, then asked Sananda when the chapter actually would start).

In due time. We know what you ask and assure you that all semblance of writing will be made clear before long. True, the style is somewhat ambiguous, but all in all you will, along with us, survive. We had best continue. The hour is getting late for you, Seila. Germain's attention is required. SANANDA.

HENCEFORTH, PYRAMIDS VS MICHELANGELO IN VENUS

Lord Germain

The builders of the beloved pyramids henceforth did construct what to us would be the equivalence of Michelangelo in Venus with regards to the art, composition and style of the glorious structures. They began with the cornerstone which did serve to facilitate the equivalent to the infrastructure of a futuristic homing-in device. This cornerstone was placed east from the 90 degree circumference and at a 65 degree latitude alignment. Dimensions totalled 360 square feet. Each brick was in its own right placed perpendicular to the cornerstone and its succeeding radius of blocks, which adhered to the circumference of the whole. It is a tricky business to be able to successfully create such mass using matter of such density. Each stone was so perfectly regulated that I do not mind telling you that each molecule had to be measured in order that it be realized as a complementary suite or status with the rest. One hundred and sixty bricks in all terminated the continuance of the semi-structure. It, of course, by then was in its final stages of completion. These certain bricks were fashioned with the minimal of ease and were to begin with of a smaller stature. Please pause.

If these words provide a semblance of intelligence for the routine construction of buildings, then we have by far succeeded at this time to have, in a dignified fashion, put our point across. One such as this will not necessarily be inlaid with a sea of diamonds, so to speak, but in fact will instead be known as the height of capacity which, when you break it down, means the height of CAP - CITY or rather the capstone of the city.

The cities at that time were known for their evident success and involvement concerning their place in the nations of the day. And here we do with great thankfulness call in our beloved Sananda to continue with the social graces of the nineteenth century of the epoch's time machine. We are GERMAIN at the service of the people.

SOCIAL GRACES ARE NOT IMPEDED

Lord Sananda

Sananda speaks again. Selah. If at that time, during one of the worst and bloodiest wars ever fought between two nations (we allude to the war of the Tripilites against the Helions), who were not, of course, of a warring nature, unless like many other proprietaries, were forced into a stalemate, these did, of course, succeed in their butchering of one another incessantly. Such bloodshed! These are the whys and whens, and the outcome of the results are narrated by the commander of the Helion forces or army, for want of a more modern term. This information, of course, which does now proceed, will undoubtedly be transferred from the data banks of Adrigon's famous White Winds ship, of which many of you here reading this, will shortly attend to the proposition of invitation in order to enhance yourselves into further knowledge.

We will pick up in the morning, little one, for this material does tend to be somewhat burdensome until you gain the wisdom to attain to full and untainted refrainment from watching. Sleep well. SANANDA. (9:44 pm).

DOCUMENTARY FROM THE WHITE WINDS

Adrigon

Tuesday, May 3, 1994

9:30 am

Adrigon downloading from the files of the White Winds at approximately 3 stages into the above time sequence or day. In conjunction to the report filed yesterday with regards to the Tripilites, we would indeed be happy to inspect for you the circumstances which brought this forth. The war, of course, is what is referred to here:

I am the Commander of the Helions and am therefore at your service for the following documentary. I was with my men, as you would call it from your perspective, one of the forerunners to this extravaganza of what we term as "great trouble on the western front!" This is somewhat of an understatement as you will see. Now to proceed.

When the balance of the equinox began to come into line, it was subjected to every whim and contour of the alluded masses which beckoned the surrounding masses. (Forgive us, we just had a minimal of difficulty with the banks). The Tripilites were among the first of those who at one time wished to include Earth in their forum of perfected sanctuaries. But, as usually happens when there are two or more who are determined to regain their territory (we say "regain" simply because each of us had, even before this particular creation had occurred, claimed this particular resource for our own), consequently it was, of course, not adhered to by the Interplanetary Council of foremost thoughts and conjectures. In other words - those thinking minds did elude even the most significant factors to their own discredit. I realize this may sound amusing, but this is how many of us do things in the heavens, as we know you term them. Our particular resources do not allow us to be less than fundamental in our allowances of the abstractness of our societal changes due to the complex nature of the surrounding cosmos, which, of course, I do state again for affirmation, contain the masses: nations, as we may put it for your understanding.

*Back to the drawing board. The congeniality of the substance in conjuncture was, of course, a prime nuisance, as we could not implement the substance necessary to enable us to properly format in conjunction with the Tripilites the necessary Akashik papers (though we of course do not use paper par se) to enable us, as a divided union, to work together in our perceived accomplishments as one nation under the auspices of the Governmental Right of the Council of the Cosmothetic League. This left us with little choice except to fall into that which we all abhor: the terrible evils of war. Not, of course, that there are good or bad in our cases, but rather exactly who, in their state of evolution, has grown and maintained to a degree the standard to hold a whole Universe in their hands. In our cases, of course, the issue was simply this: which of us had the resources as well as the integrity to hold forces of darkness at bay? The integrity of which we speak is relayed to you in similar fashion, meaning simply that when one uses their higher integrity for godly purpose (we understand that you ones do use that term quite often or at least have in the past), do allow for no room to underbuild the cosmothetic or Universal Laws of the day, which, of course, are indeed the same day in and day out - in a never changing mode.

*As this dreadful battle with our brothers progressed (and here we do use the term brothers), light and darkness are one in the sense, that when they are formatted with the substance of the Universe, you will undoubtedly find that they do compliment each other. Let us all be thankful at this time, that we of the Lighted Brotherhood, do in effect understand just how fortunate we all are to have escaped to the lighted side after eons and eons from the darkened abyss!

So with one item after another occurring, we the Helions, in evidentiality, did perceive to "win" this most abhorrent battle of all times. Lucky it was not fought on the Earth plateau, for upon that flat expanse there would have been little room for craft, never mind warriors. But please keep in mind that neither the Tripilites nor ourselves, were, or have been a warring faction. Commander of the Helion's Fourth Edition of Shawan - out.

HEAVY BITING

Lord Germain

11:10 am

The Universe in its structuring contains within itself the simplicity of the elemental factions creating the same and exact method of application as a spider and its web wound with intricate variety of complexes and substances.

Good morning, Seila. I see you are more than ready to continue on in this fashion. Lord Germain at your service once again. Now back to the eloquence of the great pyramids. Selah.

In the beginning there were (here we are not dealing with the perfect beginning or in other words the complete beginning, as we have sketchedly covered that, but rather the beginning of the living formation of our brothers), those living entities, those living structures, which contain all consciousness. Here the lifestream was added unto them and you, though the people did play a most beautiful part in the infiltration of the bodily attributes of personality through the more complex adherence to the common laws of the Universe in concerns to the restructuring (and here we ask you to backtrack and remember exactly what this particular word applies to in its proper context) and application to the outward beauty of the pyramids. Ah, yes you did a wondrous job in that every one of you did acquire the necessary elements in order to take the following steps on your own merit. If these words appear or come across to you as being purely abstract, then we would ask you to please check your equilibrium of heightened consciousness. Perhaps it would even be advisable to take yourself a short break until you are able to process an equal amount of material in due fashion. However, we will continue for those who are biting at the bit.

In conjuncture with these precious lifestreams, we refrain from giving the total dimensions and the rest of the necessary documentation according to the scale of formatted blueprint or plan of action, as we fear there would be those of the elements of less consciousness, who would indeed try to perform the necessary application to either revive the said structures or - and this horrifies even myself - that an attempt would be made to recreate new life forms. We cannot, of course, permit this to happen. Enough serious apparitions and malfunctioning of the elemental substances have been made. Enough! To continue then. New paragraph please, Seila.

BACKTRACK - HELIONS AT OUR DISSERVICE

Where the Helions played the mind over substantial matter and won their final place in the quadrant, they did do themselves a great disservice, in that each and every commander of the forces did refrain, and indeed did refuse at the time most necessary, to join and complete forces with the Redeemable Brotherhood of Light. We will explain "redeemable" to you, only for your curiosity. Here we portray context. All of us are in a state of redemption - it is an ongoing state, as you might have by now suspected, for the purpose of one day joining with the Great Creator. And then, what was the Creator's in His essence (male/female of course) would have then been redeemed back in its essence or entirety. Because we each have a consciousness, we will forever remain with our total freedom to dominate the elemental factions and thus attain to a status of Universal creation ourselves. Sounds elaborate? Well, it is indeed. It is one of the most beautifully woven plans that you will ever be privileged to hear concerning your future. So ponder on this, and forever keep it in the background of your mind.

Seila, little star, we wish to break for this portion of today. We thank you for your consciousness. I am yours. GERMAIN. (11:41 am).

CHAPTER TWO

FEW WORDS WRITTEN

Lord Sananda

Wednesday, May 4, 1994

1:37 pm

Greetings on a new day present. We are running a bit late, but better late than never. This certain day we do indeed, and unequivocally would, like to begin with our Germain - as we do realize that he has practically written the whole book to date. And so we with you emerge, into and from within the structure of our consciousness, to the everlasting profit of applical equation of Lord Germain, please be once again with you as you work. SANANDA.

Lord Germain

We intend on heading right into the core of the text at this point. Greetings, Seila. Germain at your service once again. Notice, we are already beginning to find this form of translation becoming easier. Good!

THE STARS THAT SPARKLE

The stars that sparkle are not always what they seem! For those of you who are familiar with this sort of research - to you is this directed. Let us escape the format of elementary nuances and get down to brass tacks which is all the more befitting your status. Be ready to put away your childish ideas and concepts, and make ready to step into the world of higher reality. Time to take off your diapers, so to speak, and don trousers. I am sure you get my meaning, for this can appear quite complicated for those of you who are not yet weaned from the egg of fertility. Let us begin. Adieu.

The heavens with their majesty are seemingly empty of all allocations of space and the elements of distance, as pertaining to the equinoxal barriers. You see, dear ones, space is simply a faction of the reality in which you perceive to be the "stars" and "heavens". Dotted throughout the line of time and conjuncture there lies a never ending stream of undefined resources of taxed substance, which will in accordance with evolution serve its own purpose undeniably. So much for that. In simpler terms then we are simply saying that those "things" or "lights" in the sky, which many of you perceive to be tokens of substance such as suns, stars and whatever else you can conceive of in your minds, are not in fact as you perceive them. They, for the most part, are other life forms! OH NO, of course your scientist and astronomers do not tell you these things, and you have much yet to learn, but we must begin somewhere and yes, to answer your question - this does indeed fit in with the thrust of this story - which is both mine and yours.

UNIVERSAL TRUTHS COME FORTH

All sections of the Universe are divided into even larger sections, which, of course, are the quadrants. But the separation neither begins nor ends there. You understand that this equation, which you perceive as being the only Universe, is but a shell of synchronicity in the full light of the ALL. Here we break. And I would ask Seila to enter in those of my quotations which I have given her throughout the weeks - those which she did not yet understand the purpose for their being.

- As it now comes into focus, the eclipse of the Universe has begun.

This is a conjecture in itself, dear ones, and if you would only focus on these truths you will find that your level of meditation will be greatly enhanced. So unless I find need to comment, I bid our Seila to enter those statements of enhancing quality to be laid out and documented as meditative material.

- The Ascended Masters are the brilliance of the Universe.

- If only the orifice would be removed, then all creation would be singing in its entirety, filling the cosmos with the vibrational joy that the other Universes hereby experience at this time.

- The essence of all creation is manufactured in such a way as to not discriminate upon diversity of worlds.

And we therefore label each individual as having portrayed its individuality, and here we speak of the separate and individual worlds as having been completed and been part and parcel of the global expanse of the Universe. These will be referred to in further lessons in which the expansion of the mind or the consciousness will not be eluded and will not be discriminated upon. For these things are important for our individual growth. And as we grow, it will be understood to a further degree exactly what our mind would encompass throughout the different realities or dimensions.

- All time is not all space but rather in the opposite flux of the situation.

And these are rather truths that we will touch upon but only in the birth of their essence. As to begin, their complexity could create a dangerous interlude, if we go too deep too fast and too soon for the developing of the new consciousness, especially in the other areas. This will indeed not be interrupted as we further proceed during another lesson. Keep all mind clear. Work on your expansions. This is important, for the more you open yourself up to the light that streams in with the information, the wider that small portal will come for you, and therefore you will be able to receive even more information. This is necessary also to your growth and to the growth of the planet and those whom you come in contact with. For everyone, whom you have contact with, is affected.

That is sufficient for today, little one. You have been very attentive. Thank Reni for his help. Adieu. From yours, GERMAIN.

4:15 am

- Societal changes are implemented upon the Stone of Life.

Germain. Synchronization is the game of all economy upon this planet, the Earth, and so according in this Earth sphere do we attribute the further loss of our ancestral ties. Albeit though these further changes are now no longer in effect, can we attribute the density of format into the ties of creation. This is worth pondering upon, for the essence of your lifestreams depend upon it. We now do attribute to the likelihood of the species of this current plane the like and determination due our forefathers. Currently to date we have noticed not a single one has determined thus far to be of the greater usefulness, or rather shall we put it within the kinder display, the lack thereof, of a useful and sanctioned attribute. So we do hereby close with this thought: what is that which portrays itself as being effectual does naught unto itself relay the more effectual circumstances in due course of its own creativity? As is concluded thus far, the homing device used throughout and by the ages, is really no more than an idiom. We thank you now for your attentiveness during the course of these procuring events, which to us in effect tie up the greater resource of epitome upon this plane. Selah. GERMAIN.

This we will find of extreme usefulness when compiling these works, and efficiency in the due course of time will indeed provide a way or rather a portal opening for this, your consciousness. We are sure at this point that our dear Brother Lord Sananda will at this time offer his further contributions. Make no mistake, dear ones, for this is not engraved upon the epitome of time, and thus do we hereby attribute all things to be of their essence according to the space given them upon the etchings of time. Now can I successfully and gratefully in finality turn this dialogue over indeed to the one whom it is attributed to: our dear SANANDA. I do bid leave of a more permanent nature at this time. Selah again, GERMAIN.

If Germain's writings be less than punctual, this is only to be expected, for each word is indeed highlighted and recorded upon the filament of time. Good evening, or should we have indeed taken an early start to ourselves this morning. Seila? We see you are attentive and with much coordinated help. At this time, to dear Reni we would like to extend our greetings to as well; also as well to the reader. Please record this time (4:40 am) as it is indeed rather amazing that we should actually start our session, and indeed our day, before the light has actually broken. I AM through space and time yours, SANANDA.

THE PYRAMIDAL EQUATION

Sananda to begin. We have greatly safeguarded ourselves from the illusion that, if we were to construct a tower or pyramid high and large enough, we would indeed learn to penetrate time, space and distance and thus so reach into the cosmometric book of time. Little time will be taken for complimentaries here, as we are in rather a quandary at having set a date to which we hope to attain completion of this book.

The hour has finally come which could in effect generate in its absences a striking resemblance to an epitaph. Joining with us at this time will be Adrignon, giving way to the volume of information in the data banks of his most wonderful and popular vessel. Todate we do apply the necessary tools dictated to the elders, who in their elusiveness are indeed the Masters in joining with the essence of creation as we know it.

FUNDAMENTALS OF PYRAMID CREATION

Adrignon

And now let us begin in the fundamentals of pyramid creation, which could be taken as somewhat of an illusion. By this we mean the area taken up in relation to the highlights of the circumferences, would in due time been en rapport with the builder's most efficient blueprint. It was at this time: we are now at 36,000 B.C., just before the great expanse did take over the epitome of darkness in conjuncture with the status of the archetypes. ADRIGON, (downloading from the White Winds data banks).

At 500 cubic meters we thus do attribute the ongoing passage as recorded in the banks by the Commander in Chief of the Achilles Fleet, or rather from that Galaxy, do attribute in essence to his contribution. Five hundred cubic meters was the distance in resource allowed for those contributing factors to have succumbed and encompassed with the validity and circumference of the Earth plane illusion. The structures were inlaid with a most potent substance of complex properties. This is another truth which is not only unknown, but thus far has been left undetected through the scientific resources of both, the archaeologists, as well as the pyramidologists. This substance is graphite. Graphite is endowed with proportional properties unknown to the latent world as anything of a concrete or important nature. This secret will however, for those, who are determined to use their every resource well, in effect uncover a discovery which is no less than amazing. We will not give for free the every detail with its inclusion intact, for we perceive that those, who indeed are seeking the way of the truth in ALL, will, to their satisfaction, be indebted to the cosmos for its release of substance artifact. Data downloaded from the White Winds at your service, ADRIGON. Sananda to continue.

LORD SANANDA SPEAKS

Dear ones. The hour is late and darkness is again upon this planet. The light beckons each one who would hear and who would indeed procure their spiritual eyes to see. We have in the distant past alluded to many things, the context being of little effect when concerns directed toward the masses did evolve. We therefore instruct our brothers to be of the utmost congeniality, wherein concerns the dissipation of the texture of Earth as it is known. And this we say in verification of truth, which has been long fortified due to the cosmic laws, which are yet in effect throughout each and every Universal structure. We feel we have procured a good start this morning and the need for a break is imminent. We thank you, Reni, for your services in scribing and do feel to give you a rest. I AM SANANDA.

THE MOST HORRENDOUS ATTITUDE / BLESSED BRETHERN

Friday, May 6, 1994

2:23 pm

Sananda to continue.

"It is with our deepest regrets that we have had to dismantle you and take back what was originally ours and theirs".

These were the words spoken by the Most Imminent Council of Beings. This, of course, was to occur at a much later date, but in the effectual timing of the global warfare we finally had to succumb to the wishes of the Equinoxal Brothers. Henceforth, dear ones, in due time our pyramidal brothers needed for their own security to be dismantled before further extravaganza was performed upon their person. We will unconditionally continue to evolve with the time.

Speaking of the interdimensions, which, of course, necessarily contribute to the overall design of the working mode, to be brief, and in looking at it from more of a scientific nature, you will learn, as we show you, just how effectually the sun and its radiation does penetrate the atmospheric conditions in order to radiate the essence of life into the crystal. These currents flow at an octangular level and do indeed enhance the components of the afrastructure to the degree that it matters not that eventide comes or not. You see, dear ones, it is only the builders of these plans who truly understand both, the biochemical components, as well as the chemical composition of both, material and also the composite substance.

It is truly a new Day dawning in, Seila, as the truth, which has so long been kept hidden from the peoples, begins to surface its way to the top. One more particle of truth, and we will be happy to conclude this chapter and close for the present. Break will be very early today, Seila.

In a roundabout fashion, you have indeed seen through your own writings upon pyramidology the need to find, that truth vs pure conjecture needs not a firm foundation of being. Altogether, those voluptuous books of less than satisfactory foundation do you a grave injustice, and the weight of the Earth may well be on your shoulders if you persist in continuing along these lines of habit. Instead, search, and stop taking what is not yours, when you examine, as you do, those once beautiful structures, and leave hands off, as I am sure you would not appreciate those of callous behaviour taking liberty with your family. Oh no! You would never permit that! The reason I caution you, is that you may feel the need, or feel somewhat justified to, in entering into a spaced-out state of mind, which for some reason tends to lose you all reason of capable thinking. There will indeed be those things in these writings, which you may feel you should try out or practice on these structures - truths which you have indeed gleaned from these pages. We only warn you to read, understand, but do not use those entities, or rather in our language, the pyramids, any more for guinea pigs. There could in fact be the most serious consequences to pay, as there usually is with warnings. We do feel that we have written this portion in the most basic English available to us, and it is for this reason that you, the reader, will be left with no excuse if you decide to continuously ignore our factitious advice.

Thank you, Seila, for I felt it was imperative that this be produced in print type as soon as we could get it down. These types of items never cease to bother me from time to time, given the seriousness of their application. Take a good day to yourself and continue with your own occupations at this time. Selah. This is again, yours truly, SANANDA. (2:55 pm).

CHAPTER THREE

THE CHILL THAT WRACKED THE NIGHT

Friday, May 6, 1994

Sananda to continue. The night the world shut down was a most extraordinary event, for the polarization of the Earth had need to take effect. Solidarity had little part to play in this most spectacular episode of Earth history. And what a sight to behold! You will find much to grip your interest as well as attention within these almost rustic pages, if you would only know it. Ah, but perhaps you will before the night is over.

It was the night the sun went nova and, yes, indeed we know exactly what we are alluding to. You must understand that the Sun itself does not cease to perform its creativity upon the essence of creation simply because the Earth, within its solar plexus, does decide to surround itself with the gloom and doom of the negativity, as we have come to call it, by subjecting itself to rule among the Elite in its absence of catastrophic events, which would have indeed sutured its existence, had it known of its crucial position just before the eclipse of heavenly nature took place. In other words, dear ones, the Sun went Nova on the equinox of eventide - the 4th of July year 24,000 B.C. noontime, to be precise.

If this seems a little more than off the mark to you, I would then suggest to you, that a permanent break may be more suitable as well as more beneficial to your health, as well as evolution, at this given period in time. Do not feel you must stretch your brain on our behalf.

Lord Germain

As the particles of light emanate through the filters of the increment of time, so do those who watch and learn attentiveness toward those who would teach you.

Good evening, little one. We are together again for the working if ye be ready. (9:38 pm). We do wish to highlight those effects which often elude the intermediate sources of creation of man in his most creative resource. Where were we, little one, I sometimes do get lost. Let us see if we can pick up the gist of this again.

As the eventide factor rose around the northern sector of the polar regions, it was to this justification of habit that only the sum total of life was discovered in its sublimity and effectiveness. Now, little one, I would very much like, in my sometimes rather indescribable form, appreciate the desire of the ages: the crystals and their forms, formation and format.

CRYSTALS AND THEIR DECREE

Crystals, to a great degree have always eluded the traffic of the waves of time in its essence due to their most particular activity of securing their resting place in a rather permanent fashion. Magnificent stones of little culture and intelligence? Think again. The human race, unbeknownst to itself, has gleaned the help of the ages for a token appreciation of the life form, which it has subjected itself to, in disrepute to its activities. Never in time have the crystals had their DNA procured as have the human; so with no disrespect intended, we do so tell you, or rather inform at this time, the fact that each and every crystallite formation holds an intelligence of such a nature as to match your own - if not surpass it. Not everything, dear friends, which does not move, holds less intelligence than that of those entities who do indeed run faster than they sometimes think. That is not to say that every living stone has an IQ ratio of 200 percent, but we merely state for your own information, nothing more, that nine-tenth of the solidified population does possess an increment of essence or workable intelligence: the furthest alone of these beings, the crystal entity placement.

Hard to swallow? Hold tight. Really, you have heard nothing yet. Do you really believe that your brainy scientists have evolved to the point where they themselves know of these things? Guess again. Surprises are in store for each of those who seek with open minds and logical hearts. I am at your service, GERMAIN. Break, Seila, for the hour becomes at its latest in our domain. Sign off and rest well. Selah. (10:00 pm).

LORD SANANDA AT THE HELM

Lord Sananda

With much tact do we continue. Here we tread where, as they say, angels would fear to tread. Not so for our seed, whom has thus far interluded to the extent that even the forbidden fruits are said to have been relocated in the distance of the mechanics of time. Good Evening, Seila. We are ready for further dictation. SANANDA.

Before we engage ourselves into the substance and locale of Chapter Four, we wish, with the help of our dearest Germain, convince you of our conscious effort to distract the philanderers away from the doors of economy. Maybe once said, Germain would feel more suited to the task of ironmaster or taskmaster over the extremities of the galaxies rather than tackle this obtrusive task at hand. However, should he not decline, then we would of course welcome him! Ah, but I see he has not taken the bait. Well, in that case, I Sananda, whom you are by now so very familiar with, will be honoured to continue.

THE SCUM OF THE AGES

We know not the distance with which time has passed in concurrence with the shield of the opportunist vs the obstinate human. The difference, you might ask, is simply to state that the opportunist gains in a way to satisfy his own requirements, whilst the more obstinate is left to his own cognizance. These are the scum of the world, in that each and every one have, at one time or another, eluded the desires of the multitude. Rather, they each have conducted themselves bereft of the wants and prejudices of the common man. Here is the most harm done. Self-seeking, self-glorifying individuals or parasites, shall we call them, for want of a better following. This must needed to be said, for the matter of an index, which we intend to bring around in its full sequence of events. Now we conclude that enough has been said for the good of the people, and we will elapse into Chapter Four with your permission, Seila. SANANDA.

CHAPTER FOUR

STRICTLY CONCURRENT WITH EVENTIDE

SANANDA to start. With the start of a new chapter I will humbly turn over the books to Adrigon for his portion therewith, in relation to the good of the one for the eventual good of the many. Break, Seila. Take five (minutes). Continue with Adrigon. SANANDA.

Adrigon

Good Evening, Seila. Adrigon at your service. I will be downloading from the banks, therefore I will not be available for questions concerning any problem data for a short time. These instructions are simply for your own benefit and consideration. Please ready yourself to proceed accordingly.

THAT COUNCIL'S WORDS DO STING

Date: 24th year of the 7th equinox; 26,000 B.C.

"Here we provide interjector and hope, with some familiarity the task at hand will not only be subject to those of us who succeed in obtaining proof for the actine (Greek: akinos), but have hopefully alluded and deduced the concurrence of the being of the just and fair trial in conjunction with the ever righteous rules and laws of the Universe. So Be It."

*These were the words spoken by the Highest Council of the equinox, or, better known as the Council of the Universal Correctedness within the epochs of eventide. In conjuncture with the closing down of the misfits of the galaxy, we strove to elate ourselves with the prejudice of the nations, insofar as they would adhere to the conjectural laws of the ages as so pertaining to our past and present seed, that glorifying attribute of congenial society of the malfunctioning Earthen plane at the height of the equilibrium. Hark to all those who would listen: here once again do the Council forfeit and succumb to the wants of the many versus the needs, or perceived needs, of the one.

This Council sits in session upon the waves of the dimensions, whereby we can allude to the particular peculiarities of the drama about to unfold upon the destiny of mankind. What folly! What misgivings have we, as the Elite of the Heavens, whom in our hands have been given the texture of the most solid support of the Ageless Ones. Adieu, and Adieu most Glorious Ones." SANANDARK, (COUNCILMAN OF THE FOURTH STAGE OF THE SUMMARY). (San-an-dark).

ADRIGON EXPLAINS "GRECIAN" NATURE IS INDEED COMPLIMENTARY

Here, as you may have noticed, Seila, the statement of the Council will be later found to be of a most pertinent nature, and it is for this reason, that we felt it must be interjected within the confines of this text. We are running smoothly tonight. Many things may be of a nature of increasingly difficulty to understand, but, fear not, neither bother yourself with drudgery, for to who these texts are directed, those are they who will benefit the greatest from these words. Many issues tend to be interpreted as having a "greician" nature. Is that how you tend to put it? But are not of a "greician" nature to those who adhere to the volumes of truth within these hallowed pages. Not all are grossly illiterate, little one. ADRIGON.

I tend to rattle on at times, so with a short explanation I will conclude for this evening.

Have we noticed that the year supersedes the year 24,000? We hope so. By recognizing that fact shows us that you indeed have been attentive to our wiles which dictate itself being predominant. We have needed to backtrack in order that all flow according to the design or outlay of our mentor, Adoni. So please do not trouble yourself, but take much time rather, to instill in your subconscious Self this most private meeting of this Universal time sequence regarding the third-dimensional plane. ADRIGON signing off. (9:44 pm).

THE TEMPTUOUS FACTOR OF TERRA

Adoni

Tuesday, May 10, 1994

7:10 pm

If truth be known, no amount of trepidation would have been allowed to enter into the stark truth of the ambient servant, which we once were, and indeed you at this time are. Much has been manufactured by the essence of the timekeeper of the nations, to instruct the heathens of the worldly plane to involve themselves with the semblance of time instructed purposes. Hence we know from our information as well as experiences that knowledge is the one way to leave the masses not bereft of their sanctimonious ways of disciplined oratory. We pray to continue here, Seila. Receive instruction now from our Germain. Selah, ADONI.

Lord Germain

The wrath of the nations almost always contemplate aforehand the eventual ruin of the masses of population overload. Germain.

What tragedy, little one. To have indeed witnessed the horrors and sat upon the waves and dimensions of time, contemplating the worst scenarios of mankind. If only it would be thought to have abated the direction of man and his so sought-for integrity, then we too, of the Lighted Brotherhood, would have far succeeded into the knowing of the Desire of the Ages, those Glorious Ones. Adieu.

It is I, always yours, GERMAIN. Good Evening, Seila. I just like to formulate my thoughts before I truly begin and felt it would be by good means to voice them for printing, so that more than I may benefit from them. Let us begin a new paragraph for a new topic.

This evening we would speak of the turning of the eventide. And I suppose we should have included a subheading, but do as you will with that one. I would like to proceed.

CAPSTONE OF TIME SECURED

Statutory confinements within the interludes of space are ineffectual remnants of the subspace compliances in accordance with the supreme ruling of the subtle Council of the Archives. Here, of course, we do refer and engage ourselves within the confines of the tepidity or type of record, only that prohibited by the Council of the same pleasing content.

The remnants of the confines we speak of are those items which the pyramids succumbed to through pillagers. It is stated that those certain few, who plundered and raped our brothers and sisters of that formation, were indeed of the most severe tyrant group who did go forth in the galaxy. And to date they have indeed returned, not, as you might suspect, with inquiring minds as to best accomplish the manifestation of their greed - what by selling for profit - but if again the truth be known, they have indeed come back through the expanses of time, as many of you have done, for the sole purpose of finishing off what they left unfinished. Thus, with foreseeing the future intents, there were those among us who did have both, the authority, as well as the determination, to remove with physical means the very essence of the pyramidal form from within itself: the precious capstone. For what can move and operate in conjunction within itself, which had not mind to work in conjunction with the soul?

These treacherous ones, dear friend, were those of the Helion type who did distress over the loss of their perceived Earthen ownership, which, of course, over the due course of time, did fall into the hands of the incongruous native faction: the actual earthdwellers themselves, who in disguise of within one fraction of their lifeblood, did inherit unto themselves substantial invasion rights of piratehood, albeit, that of course being free will of third dimensional reality. Caucasian or not, little difference shows after the type of idiosyncrasies of time/space dimensions. Ponder this to be sure and realize the invading faction, and your knowledge will have rapidly increased. We will break for tonight, Seila. I do promise that you will begin to see the sense in these words as we flow along in context. Adieu. GERMAIN. (7:40 pm).

Greetings, little ones. This is the beginning of the Third removed from the conclusion. The majority at stake here, which we realize, is of more of an in-depth nature. We will be more than happy to turn over at this time to our Germain. It is more of a restricted nature, and here bone crushing begins, as we could say of a sort. These following words and concluding words of the Third removed from the end are not for the faint hearted nor the weak. If you have ears that burn - best to put the book down at this time. We are hitting the nitty-gritty, so to speak. The past information, that has been relayed to you and to each and every one for your depth of understanding, we know, has been beneficial, and also does contribute toward these end-chapters. We are pleased to begin.

A SHORT COMMENTARY OF A DISTINGUISHED NATURE

Lord Germain

Germain at your service. The emphenites of the universal structure also tend to be irrelevant at times. The infrastructure which is co-related with the union of the universes, not only the galaxies as well as the solar systems, and here we do interject that we don't go into as much depth as thou would prefer, for the simple reason of your curiosity, as it would be head jumping, as we would term it here, very far above thine own heads and Heads of State, to be sure. We work in great in-depth with Hatonn, our dear Brother, of which many of you have known his acquaintance, whether be through writings or in person. He does work in conjuncture not only with state heads but with, as we call, the "Elite of the Brotherhood". Nothing is forsaken. The "bones" that are rattled thereof with many dignitaries who walk by his side, will be known in very short fashion just of his true identity - and how these walls will come tumbling down! But thy dear brethren come crushing upon each and every shoulder who burdened the people. We have our secrets rather tied up at this time. We ask each and every one to watch out for them. A few will be alluded to in these writings. And the reason that being (that we only portray and project a few to our readers, instead of, as you would put, a great lump sum) is because that is all your delicate minds and souls could adhere to. Anymore would be bone-crushing to the common man. And this in its entirety would be rather unjust and unfair. Therefore we do not permit ourselves, but only do permit ourselves the luxury of bringing down upon the heads of those, thy accusers. Much is to be said on this topic in further writings, but not as to be adjoined at this time in these concluding chapters, of which there are these last three.

The high ship, or otherwise known as the White Winds by Commander Adrigon who does stand by with his downloading, is in its essence impeccable in its major undertaking due to conjecture of text in its almost complete or certain formal context. However, at this time we have decided to implement that in due course at a later time. We do thank you for your contribution and your stand-by at this time, Adrigon.

Ah, we have not neglected you, Seila, we do bid you Good Evening. Break for three while we regroup and attend council.

We will commence. The gravity of unconcentrated consciousness, as has been dealt down through the ages to mankind, is what we would allude to as being somewhat the subservient to the decrements and affiliations of demoralizing society. We do in turn simply, but not fearfully by any means, allude to the fact that all credentials which are followed up by protocol, will in one way or another, reconstruct with the energizing forces of above. Here we mean the plateau. We do quite often, of course, deal in other planes or plateaus, as you may wish to call them, or dimensions, whichever you would feel more comfortable with - it's beside the point. The point of being, here, and of all conclusion of this type of protocol, would indeed be the allegations which are directed toward those of a rather unsuspicious nature. Have no fear of these words, Seila, for they are to be edited for you. Proceed. Adrigon, we feel, may assist us in downloading at this time. There is informational data, which in its most serene and sincere conclusions, would at this time be an undue benefit. Here I sign off. I am GERMAIN.

Adrigon

Greetings, Seila, and comrades. This is by far one of the most pleasant experiences to-date. By this I mean our joint comradeship in producing these writings. As so below, so it is above, not only working among ourselves. ADRIGON at your service. I will proceed at this time with the downloading, though, do be prepared. It is of a short conference at this point, but with minor detailed information. Stop.

THE TIDE OF THE EQUINOXAL SUBSTANCE OF SPACE DIRECTION

The equinoxal tide, which had so adrifted afar over the eons, has been rapidly drifting back to its place, of, as we could say, circumference, or within that wall, which adheres to its solidifying effects. This truth in itself is somewhat difficult to grasp. But as we heed the awakening of the tide, which, as it rushes inward, also is pulled back toward the equatorial dimensions or fortitude, and such like, as water in a cave.

You may find these truths rather difficult, but any problems of this practicality, as to us it is not so much elementary, more intermediate. But for those who feel the meat is a little too soft, we put these tidbits of sinew in. But now adhere to this:

A SECOND COMMENTARY OF ADJUSTMENT OF THOUGHT BY VIOLINIO GERMAIN

The collapse of the nations, like blocks, one tipping the other, and you haven't seen it yet. You haven't seen near what they publicize may or could happen. Any papers, any shows, any news articles, any myths, any fiction or non-fiction - there is not one that has come even close to what will occur in a matter of short years down the road. This we have propagated and the sure-footed brotherhood, which are not, but yet soon will be, dotted throughout the face of the Earth for the sole purpose of instigating the replicas of these informational packages. There will be no questioning where it came from. Whether it will be accepted or not is another matter. Protection will be around every word spoken and every word written, and woe be unto those who would listen or read and subject themselves to the point where they feel they need not tarry nor listen, but rather reign over others in abject poverty: (they) will in due course bring upon themselves such a curse and turmoil as the world has never known before. Blessed be those who take heed and listen. But not one word spoken nor one word written will be allowed to be destroyed. They are written, each one, in a crystal-clear gold, such as platinum would seem to be. But this crystal-clear gold, which is known of in the higher Universes as Beffium, does indeed reverberate those thoughts and those words of those reading or listening, which are indubitably written down into the Records, those Records of Life Personal which we also conclude as the Akashic Records. These do pick up the vibrational flows. For those (of) you who can understand, then please do so. And those of you, (for whom) these words in this particular writing does go far and surpasses over your head, is the ego, roams the depths of the heavens: to you we bid adieus, for as above so it remains below.

We find there will not be a lot of change in these last few years as far as the understanding and the evolution of consciousness. You have been given - each one of you - eons to adhere to instructures, instructors and teachers. We have so grounded you and there by your own design have we been able to pick and secure those who will be reseeded.

This will be the extent of the downloading at this time from the data banks. ADRIGON out.
Good Evening, Seila.

Lord Sananda

With the conclusion of the aforesaid article, we will leave you with your thoughts to put upon the morrow. We do thank you for your consideration, and again, your undue attention concerning these writings. These will be expected to be put out immediately following the conclusion of Chapter Seven. Good Evening to you both. I am SANANDA. (7:55 pm).

"THE ATOMIC PROPORTION OF EACH MOLECULE IS SUBSTANTIAL ENOUGH TO CREATE
POLARIZED REACTION IN ITS SUBSTANTIATED FORM."

CHAPTER SIX

THREE WELL KEPT SECRETS

Lord Germain

"What the Quantum Department does with Hierogenics is most extraordinary."
Germain.

Experience dictates the factors of reality into a creative substantial influential absence of earthly integrity. Sela. Incredibly enough, it is a well known fact among the Elitist population that hierogenical implants are the true source of brain malfunction. Among those who (are) of the unabridged diagnosed ratio, this will become a more widely known fact within the next decade or years, if time be shortened or mobilized. You see, dear friends, this is not the ultimate in laboratory functioning, albeit one of the more serious endeavors toward the ruining of the human populace. This is neither new to old friends and indeed is meant to shake some bones. Truly, I speak out of a necessity which far abounds the coverups, so to speak, of a multitude of sins!

Take note, little one, for we are due to record all evidence shortly, although not through this particular writing. This book is more of a forenote or prelude to the real thing, an update, if you like to put it that way. We will continue.

Formatted through destiny, there arose a substantial abrasion of misinformed directional substances, which through their misdirection of information gave interlude, or made way rather, to a release of a particular formatted entry or edition of factual particles of established truth. This Plato understood gradually by his own cognizance or ambition through the elements of time. Solar light, in conjunction with those particles of faith, precedence over whiplash of the environments. But did this serve to subject even men like Ptolemy to lives of abject spiritual depravity? Mais Oui, NON! This does then only serve to partition off those ones who do not destroy that which Creation itself has made. Break now, Seila, and then enter that which I earlier gave, regarding our old friend Plato.

INSERT FROM THURSDAY, MAY 12, 1994

1:20 am

Plato experienced just that. The farsightedness of that man far surpassed any in the regimented construction of time during that period, due to the time barrier, which had been implemented and formatted in conjuncture with the coming of precision, so-called "implants", of the offshoot heretics (speaking in a negative fashion, of course). You see, Plato understood what few of mankind have understood, even to this date, and that point is purely and solely - astrophysics (ah YES, as we have said, he was far beyond his time). This was the result of the partitioning of the equilibrium of all polar faction in the Earth's circumferences, which resulted in the atomic proportion of each molecule being substantial enough to create polarized reaction in its substantiated form.

Ptolemus also believed that a rectangular source of establishment, which made no sense to the public, of course, contained a lateral diminishing effect upon the pyramidal structure of the epoch.

Augustus, though naive as he was, did manage to put his finger upon the point of time, in which he came close to discovering, and indeed finding, the gateway to the portal of time-dimension travel. We are most fortunate that such proceeded no further with his endeavours. We would like to thank you for your interest and comprehension of these topics. Have a good evening to yourselves. We bid you adieu, I am GERMAIN. May the God and the Goddess of the Universe be tightly within you.

ASTRONAUTS VS COSMONAUTS

Germain to conclude

The Astronauts of this most intricate Universe do so often subject themselves to the extraordinary sublimities of elitist information, all due to their role part in the game plan for such plans of reverse ecology.

Travelling, as they are so accustomed to through their most limited function, simply serves to eliminate those elements of all sense and practicality through their most limited equations as well as dubious inconsistencies within the structural realm of compliances throughout cosmos activity. You think this is ingrained with each one from birth? On the contrary, each are taught with much fervour and dramatical essence of evaluation that very auspices, that very predicament of equality among those who have, and those who do not. Such unfairness! Such despicable injustice abounds! Oh, that the grain of sensibility would only far reach into the reservoirs and depths of the human sanctioned lifeblood.

But that day will soon come, when those, who have destroyed humanity and all that it has stood for throughout the ages, are esteemed as the tokens of purgatory for their brashness and rashness. What a sour stomach shall father them -- those of that count!!

Cosmonauts will NOT be seen as excluded from the framework of time and energy, which they too have wantonly contributed. Rest now, little one. We know, you too are anxious to conclude, but rest is a requirement for those still present and subject to physical form. Not for long, little star. I am GERMAIN. This is Chapter Six, conclusive.

"THE FUNDAMENTALISTS OF THIS WORLD
CONTRIBUTE IN A LIKE FASHION TO THE JUSTICES SEVERED BY HUMANITY."

SANANDA

CHAPTER SEVEN

THE DARKENED EPOCH

LORD SANANDA

"The darkened Epoch is concluded with the Light. This is how it will be at the end."

My wrath at this time is not to be appeased. Neither is the wrath of such other Elites in the Brotherhood as Gabriel or Michael or the very Hierarchy angels. And we will get this form of transmission flowing smoothly. This is not always as easy as one would think.

I believe the Chill that Wracked the Night was the last one I had done to date. We will now begin with chapter seven.

COMMENTS AND INTRODUCTIONS

For this one we do have a surprise, for we are going to show of things pertaining to above as we look down and therefore regaining back our perspective. And we do want certain selected readers to know of our perspective as we look down upon this whole ugly situation. We now do with much gratitude and honour turn over this segment to the archangel and our dear brother, Raphael. SALU. I AM SANANDA.

GABRIEL SPEAKS

I must at this time, though this is somewhat of an interruption, express to all nations and all peoples, that in these later days my wrath will indeed be appeased. I have agreed at this point not to dispute nor to put myself to much speech, but I have long waited for this day and I will not hide behind a covering any longer, nor will my voice be kept silent. I will give only a few more minutes longer or shall we say, moments, as it is in moments of our time. I do thank you for permitting this interlude. I AM GABRIEL.

COMMENTARY BY RAPHAEL BEGUN

Greetings, little one. The symphonies of the Heaven do play for you. We will begin with chapter seven. I introduce myself, thusly. I AM THAT I AM. I AM RAPHAEL. The Darkened Epoch will be this final chapter.

The perspective of the whole of the Eventide and of all the Brethren that rule above, and the Councils, the Enlightened Ones so far advanced above any of the Galaxies thus far and intergalactic wars, of course, are irrelevant at this time. Everything is rather stabilized from our viewpoint. Even Michael need not tend to his armies at this point but rather just overseeing the few that are the messengers. Everything is rather in status right now. The only ones who could be considered somewhat busy, and I do consider that as somewhat of an understatement of myself, would be our ships. They are having many transmissions. They work with the Brethren who are on the Earth, though we plan to have a lot more dotted throughout in a short time. And many of those who are to be dotted throughout will be those whose consciousness has been released into the Universe, so to speak, where they have finally attached with their higher selves. We need them to travel to different chakras. Mankind does so limit himself to the ones that are within and the ones that are without. Very lowly surrounding, they do reach much higher levels.

We cannot tell you or express exactly at this point, the indepth literature that is in this book, for only those who have eyes to see will be able to decipher exactly the words. To others they will seem as confused, or scrambled. Indeed, that is a variance - let me put it that way. We have little tolerance for those whose brains are somewhat scrambled at this point for they have had eons and eons to work it out - to regain their Majesty. Instead, they threw it to the wind and buried it in the sea. They then come back as another and yet as themselves and cry "Woe unto us! What have we done? No evil we're sure." We shall soon see, for justice meets justice and each one will come and face himself. Excuse, we must confer.

ATON VIEWED

The Heavens are alive, or shall we say, reverberate with the presence of the Omnipresent, Aton. All things being subject and in conclusion to not only our satisfactions that justice be fairly dealt out and meted, especially among the poor. And here we don't speak of material effects, but the poor of spirit.

If only there would be those of you whom there will be in some short time, who would be brought up with us and would see from our perspective, and view the overall picture. Oh what limited vision you have, you poor ones, and yet so many are so rich to be at this time involved in the greatest adventure of all time in this particular Universe so created.

Watch, Watch, dear ones, as the seas dry up. Oh, you're expecting floods, well we won't disappoint you, not by any means. But you will see the vastness of the floods will so dry up the seas on either side. You will see raising out of the North, and the East and the West and the South, protrusions, which ye ones have seen millennium ago. Be wise. And these are warnings taken to those who would heed. To those who will not heed and wish to be their own inundated sacrifices through time and time and eons again, so shall it be. So shall it be so. For they will be washed away not by the winds, but the great waves of the tidal eclipses. The warning therefore proceeds, and be wise, do not locate near large or great bodies of water. Neither locate near the footages of those great canyons which stretch up like thine hands into the Heavens. Those great and majestic mountains, for all will come tumbling down. They will be shattered. It will be as if they are made of glass. Oh ye ones, if you had any idea what all was in storage for you and, yes, I do use the word storage. The store of the age. Try separating the two words. And this even so is nothing yet. For from under the depths from under the seas will come great eruptions and they will travel criss-cross all underneath the plateaus, the plains, and the hilly regions. And there will be not one part left untouched.

AND THEN AT THE END AS WAS PROMISED - AND THIS PART HAS NOT BEEN

TAMPERED WITH - NOR DARE EVEN THE ELITIST TAMPER WITH THIS PART. NEXT IS WITH WHEN THE SON OF GOD DOES TOUCH HIS FOOT UPON THE MOUNT OF OLIVES - AND WATCH THE GLASS CRUMBLE.

WATCH IT SPLIT IN TWO FOR GABRIEL'S WRATH WILL NOT BE SUBDUED. AND IF YOU THINK ATON ISN'T ABOVE ALL, THEN DEAR BRETHERN, DO THINK AGAIN.

This is hardly to be construed as a joke. Neither is it to be looked upon with eyes of pity. It is to be looked upon rather as a New Creation. If there be any pity - then weep for her, the Earth, that you have so cruelly destroyed. You have raped and plundered. You have drugged. You have polluted. You have poisoned. You have strangled - almost to the point of non-existence {if that be your terminology}. However, there can not be that aspect of non-existence. But, she will be revived. And thee ones who are responsible - and you know who you are - will be dealt with most harshly. For your crimes and your punishments will present themselves to you and thus will you be judged. Oh not ten times over nor twenty, but a hundred fold for these evils that you have done. And yes, lo though we do not consider what is evil and what is good, in a lot of aspects, then let me put it to you this way - there are those who evolve and their essence is protruded and found in the design and the essence of all good and the Creation to give back to that from whence each particle has come. Each particle being each one of us, to be sure.

THEN, THERE ARE THOSE ONES AND AGAIN I SPEAK OF THOSE - YOU KNOW WHO YOU ARE - WHO MUST HIDE WITH THEMSELVES IN THE ABYSS -NEVER FACING THEMSELVES. WHAT TREACHERY! WHAT FOOLISHNESS! IF YOU WOULD ONLY COME TO THE STAGE WHERE YOU WILL FACE YOURSELF - MAYBE YOU WILL MAKE THE FINAL BREAKTHROUGHS. BUT, EVEN SO - THE TIME IS LATE.

THE HOUR IS PAST. AND THE WRATH OF THE HEAVENS AND THE UNIVERSE - OF THE CREATION ITSELF CAN NO LONGER BE APPEASED.

The Creation always yearns for experience because the Creation is in all its wisdom, most understanding. Ahh, but to go on further, would be a waste of our breath. For you see, I do not work alone in this script. There are others such as myself, whom I confer with from time to time. We do wish for you indeed, to understand our perspective.

MY PEOPLE

NOT ONE HAIR WILL BE TOUCHED, ON THE HEADS OF ANY WHO WORK FOR US. LET ME ASSURE YOU THOSE DAYS ARE FAR PAST. DO TRY, AND YOU WILL FIND OUT

EXACTLY WHAT WILL HAPPEN..

THERE WILL BE NO MORE SHOOTINGS OR DRUGGINGS. THERE WILL BE NO MORE HANGINGS. THERE WILL BE NO MORE FLAMES AT THE PYRES. THERE WILL BE NO MORE TORTURINGS. FOR THAT TIME HAS ALL PASSED. IT IS ERASED. FOR NOW WE TAKE CONTROL. AND EVEN SO WE SEE YOU BACK UP. YOU VIPERS. YOU TOADS. YOU ARE FULL OF CANKEROUS SORES AND YE KNOW IT NOT.

WRATH EXPOUNDED

You will find our wrath is unequalled to any you have experienced before. Do not be frightened when the heavens shake. Or the weather changes dramatically. For those are only signs. Signs in the Heavens, nothing more. But instead, watch your feet. You may get bitten. For that is the essence of the upheaving and the labour pains of Terra. And we do know you recognize the name for Earth. We will be subdued, no longer. The time has long past and yet will be right on schedule. And though we don't know the hour or the day, we know the readiness by the coming of the Eventide.

TAKE HEED AND BE WARNED. NEVER SAY WE DID NOT WARN YOU. FOR YOU WILL STAND IN ALL NAKEDNESS. THEN HEREIN WE DO NOT REFER TO CLOTHING WHETHER WITH NOR WITHOUT. BUT TO THE SPIRITUAL STATURE.

Ah, you think you have got away with great things. You think your many persecutions have outlasted even the greatest. Well from time past, perhaps it did seem that way. But now, even we see that you notice a changing in the tide and we see fear on your faces. Your countenances are changing. And where, may I ask, will you run to next? For if the sea doesn't swallow you up - the mountains may fall on you. If the mountains don't fall on you the earth may open up, and swallow you. You can almost choose. At least never say we did not give you a choice. And much more of a choice than did give you to those of us, who in ages past were slaughtered by your hand. IN YOUR TERMINOLOGY - IT IS PAY-UP TIME!

We are grateful, Seila, We intend to end transmission now. Sananda will have the closing remarks. Please proceed.

CLOSING COMMENTS

Sananda here. Well done, little one. This chapter we have indeed concluded this day. My Salutation will be present with you also and with the reader.

We do hope that somewhat of an impact has been made. This book will now be sent forth as quickly as you can get it down and edited. We will be giving further instruction regarding titles, forewords, and things of that sort. We will also advise you of the publishing house.

Throughout all the ages we have waited for these Truths. Ah we have others. We have others working for us. Good and beautiful people. And these final truths will also be released to circulate among the peoples of this Earth.

FROM EACH AND EVERY ONE OF US. THE BRETHRENHOOD. THE HIERARCHY OF ARCHANGELS, ATON, HATONN, even though he be not present in these writings - he works closely with us, dear GERMAIN, dear ADONI and we would not forget our blessed brother ADRIGON. AND ABOVE ALL FOR ALL THAT IS - THE ESSENCE OF THE CREATION ITSELF, AND THE MOTHER - TERRA, OUR EARTH PLANE.
