

THE CONSUMPTIONS OF THE NATIONS IN STRIFE

July 19, 2009, 11:41 am

Good afternoon, little one. Hatonn in here for an exquisite piece of information which the nations deserve. Clock in each time piece precisely. Thank you.

Now, indeed is the information which I am about inclined to serve up to the each of you as being a standardized diet for consumption, a rarity in treats for those of you wanting more, more and more information of that which is upcoming. This book will coincide with that of Lord Sananda's, and though you may see little in specks of land title gallops across the western hemispheric planes of Alaska, Alberta, Kentucky, and Nebraska, little more of the same will hit the news waves of Zionistic press. But believe us that this will one day go to press when the top shooters of the nations' guns backfire right upon the gullet of their faces. New paragraph, please, Seila, and thank you again for your attention. Hatonn.

Consumptions is not an abbreviated word on this one at this time. No grammatical error to be sure. Why is that? Simply due to the fact that many lands are now being consumed with a, and bold this one please, Seila, cancerous nectarine, and in a moment I will explain this as surely as the pants on the plant consume his ire as well.

So, indicatively speaking, and now that is a word to look up in order to place your minds within your craniums back in order, we have settled the settlers out of Palestine and back into the forested regions of Afghanistan. And how indeed will this work? Well certain ones like strife, do they not? Indeed. But the Afghanis do not. So with one wishing to destroy Palestine and east Jerusalem and the Afghanis not liking the 'fight,' we thought, we could just put those two factions together and watch the Afghanis settle all of the disputes. Do you get our logic in all of this yet, dreamtakers, or do we rankle your craniums with this one idiom as well. In any case it was not so much a question as a fact of beingness. So indicatively again do we say, starvation, treachery and bastardness against a rather holy people just will no longer win. Their time is almost over before WWII takes her wings and flies right into the nest of perjury. And who would after all fight who, for most nations are run by the same gigantic military force, and up until now no one could or would dare stop them. But let's see what the President of the United States, Obama, does then. We keep our eyes upon him. Maybe after all he will come through at the source and the expense of his own kin and skin. We shall see... (Pause) (11.57 am)

11:59 am

Sorry, we lost transmission but we are now back on line. The cantankerous being of Obama thus far has shown the level of infiltration into his Presidential seat of which leaves very little for the last bit of cheek to sit upon stably. And when did this happen? The moment he knew his primary was won. He spit out his friends and allies for a piece of the pie and when he bit into the sour dough he did not like it one little bit, but try as he might, the Masonry masterpieces bought him his own little dinger of a sort and that stabilized his soul with them for the moment. But now he is no longer satisfied and longs to regain the chair he so heartily fought for in the pre-election runabouts.

That is enough for today, little one, and thank you again for your undying participation in all that is decent, good and academic. Hatonn commanding nothing worthwhile at the moment. Out, and good day to one and to all. (12:03 pm)

5:23 pm

Counterplacent are they ones of the weapons manufacturing as to who and to whom the weapons are designed to kill. That is putting it simply, and wholly neutral is Chicago Bears in their dugout. So be it.

That first killing spree, however, in Afghanistan only damaged American/British image, and not one iota did it damage the inferior of the planet's homogenous beings, named Taliban, for the farce of the American/British/NATO regimes' own horror house dinged their reputation not with that of the expectant world society at large in the Zionistic camp.

Well, Belgrade was another elusive bear cub, and indicatively known were the cougars camp left/right of Philadelphia. Just another little Hatonn exclusive bit of news. Figure that last trace of cocaine out, if you will, and just indeed who does supply it all from the poppy fields of Afghanistan and yes, even Pakistan. Heard of that yet, ye little tricksters of the Atlantic marine quarry aboard the nasty everlasting jettison base of Kentucky. Yes, and they are there too, they ones of the Hatonn board of all 'inquiry.'

Incongruous are they all down at Texicom, but as we hit on that savor little piece of tidbit on the last four books of the Articles of true Faith, we will continue to wag the dog of Washington. Just a little shaking up over here. (Yawn) This is tiresome, to say the least, but the left foot will shake the right boot right out the door of the lawn of the White House and then they think, the Zionist camp, that White indeed does mean white.

Treachery abound. Demonism, devilishness, abound. Here we have Hank back, and if you remember from the previous books, Hank was a great war hero for the sake of forsaking all those who wished him to dismember himself for the Zionist radical racist cause. Thank goodness, someone was thinking. Amen to all of his posterity anyway.

Goodness gracious again, that time already. Always am I running out of time! Good day, sign off, Seila, and remember, ol' Hatonn is always just that quick on the mark. Adieu. (5:35 pm)

5:47 pm

Camp David is an 'albatross' for worldly leaders, and not one goes there who does not claim some kind of amnesty for his or her, yes 'her' deeds at whatever stage of the game they are all at. It's sick, no matter which way you look at it.

This is how it works, loves: the leaders one by one receive an 'invitation' from the White house row, and this means Congress and Senate intact, just waiting to pounce upon them all, again, one by one. Then comes the 'cementing' of 'facts' which instill in each leader the design of the Zionist entity and how 'they, the leaders, can hope to cope' with all the backlash of their own personnel and people of their nations, as they see backrubbing all over D.C., Congress, Masonic Hall, indescribable in its 'ethics,' contemporary in its overall deception, and decisive in its hallmark of unethical and moral complimentary data. God help the poor sickos who fall under Washington's thumb. Poor dumb jerks, anyway. Like bulls taken to the slaughter instead of breeding the natural way. Poor dumb ducks. No reference to you, Seila, for Sananda loves to coo you to sleep with that phrase, rather, word.

Now on with the next segment, and artificial cooing at Washington's beck and call is the only thing which keep most world leaders in power, even the ones you think stand on their own two legs. God help them as well.

So now on with the power struggle, heh? Not so, little dwarfs of your mind. This is no more a token of respect to Congress than it is to the Senate, nor to Masonic Order. But that is a story for later.

Guess who designed the NASA space module Olympus? Me, Hatonn? No, ne're de a farthingsight home to be. It was recompence in all of its efforts. Mr. Mission 5 holds the most seniority over Pentagonal affairs and Netanyahu designed NASA after, hear me now, after, the big crash of 59? 49! This was to be used as a simulation of star tracks throughout the galaxy in order to recruit for NASA a much larger brigade to allow the world no comeback once Israel was at the center fruit of all power, much like it is today, but with no such known opposition. That is the real crux of the matter and that is the close of this segment for today.

Sorry for the on-and-off variation, Seila, but we must write whenever I have the time and you have the opportunity to assist me. Thank you both again. Ramtha out for segment sentence on behalf of Commander Hatonn, Esquire of the downtrodden nations. Good night. (6:03 pm)

July 21, 2009, 1:17 pm

Well, all is well that ends well, is that not so, little ones of Sananda's furthestmost troops? Hatonn in for the next few minutes, and indeed that is not long, but for the sake of non-repetition we will continue on just and exactly where we didst leave off. New paragraph icon, please. With we ones, a new sentence is just adrift from the last paragraph or vise versa. In any case, enough of this rambling of mine and on with the show.

Expediting, or rather 'expedition' of all troops southeast of Afghanistan center of Kabul will all shortly be removed from their barracks and sent off home. Well, what a surprise will that be when India throws the United States for the loop of her life. And they thought India could be bought out after all. Well, it worked for Pakistan and Afghanistan with Karzai, did it not? And what about the sodden ones inside of Iraq who by now cannot quite stand them at all. Well, felons and deception put Obama in the chair and now it is time to pay the piper. Which piper? The Israeli lobbyists and... New sentence, please, and we will continue. But think a little, loves, for thinking can severely assist the each one of you in your gullibility and that could serve indeed no less fruit than that of the conquering spirit of Vietnam. My words are not fable, and if you think I have forgotten my sentence sequel, you are vastly mistaken. Now on with the rest of the circus show as Captain Esu Sananda would so promptly state.

Diefenbaker, Hitler, Roosevelt, all had one thing in common. They did not like to lose. Well, neither do we, and we will not lose a second time around for the sanctification of your souls through dialogue. This is the fun bit: uncovering truth like a present in a pretty wrapping. Eisenhower, however, intricately decided to foil the truth about the Pigs in their Bay. Think not? Many things that take place do so under design whether that design was in the past, present or even in some cases, future. Now, how can the past event be written in the future? Easy, the scribing of a lost generation was the future before it became the past. Hatonn out for this segment. Sorry, love. Got to go. Mention me to Reni, if you will, and have a great day. Out. (1:30 pm)

July 22, 2009, 10:57 pm

“Cocaine is a lucrative slave trade. Why, dear ones, is that? Because it makes slaves out of the people”. Sananda’s entry to Hatonn’s book.

HORN OF AFRICA

Good morning to ye all, dear ones. Under the Horn of Africa lies a caveat. Now what is this Horn precisely, and what is this caveat? We will soon be in the midst of things if we were the United States of America continuing the practice of “roll barreling” the items from within the Horn of Africa, kind of like pork barreling. In any case, the Horn here lies within the elementary status of the South African government and the caveat is the gross amount of U.S. currency taken from the people of the west to give to the government of Sarkozy. Now, is he not the president of the U.S.S.R.? No! But then no longer is Mandela the president of South Africa. What we are saying, dear ones, is this: fudge sticking the people, no matter what their nation, is mandatory for Israel’s success. You must understand here, dear ones, that whenever one government “gets” the money, the people do not “get” the wares, but the offshore account “gets” the currency and a new dictatorship is formulated out of necessity for the Israeli accounts and they then get the diamonds, the gold, the coal, the gas and the oil and whatever other resource including the gum out of the trees of Ecuador. Uhum. Next paragraph please.

This is the conquering style gate of the Israeli Jewish policy which befits Zionistic thought and practice with a fine tooth comb. This is how policy is dictated and just why there is nothing left for the people, and then wars and rows occur. Now on with the next.

Goodness, look what time it is already in the Royal Houses of British conquistadors! Eleven pm, past midnight, is it not? Now think that one over, little ones, for the brass gate is ABOUT TO FALL! WITH KENTUCKY RIGHT IN THE MIDDLE!

Did you hear the Americans went with Russia “back” to the moon in ’76? That was a fable that never did hit the press. Oh well, all goodly customs are arthritic at times, so do not worry about that one at all, it will come later.

Now to the Nome of Alaska. Heard the latest on this one? The American Congress actually felt they could dictate articulately to the U.S. Senate that the failsafe dome in the Arctic was able, now get this, was able to turn the world upon its axis through a moderately deep hole in the ground using sonar hyjinx ground wires through the deepest part of the crust of the earth, and the Congress wanted its own scientists to get there the breakthrough before Russian Scientists beat them to the punch and a trillion plus one billion fourty-three would do just fine. And just what does Obama, that infamous U.S. president, think about all of this? You’re right! He does not know. (Yawn) Oh well, just one more little “predicament,” are we not right?

Back to the moon lunar landing, and then we will sign off. La lune, or moon is just far enough out of reach to be safe from American/Russian and Chinese hands for the moment and good job too, for the Council of Artimus who rule that region don’t like the fact that Americans in particular solve their problems through the barrel of a gun, or a sharpshooter, or whatever. Period. It will never happen in their territory any more than the Americans went to Mars in any way, shape or format, to antagonize the populace or whatever is left of it. Good day. Commander Hatonn out. Please put in time sequence please, little one, and count my contractions. Getting good, am I not, in twentieth century English! (11:19 pm)

5:43 pm

Hatonn back at the helm on this one. The delinquent source structure of the bitter and contemptible U.S. government is a farce for all to see. Therefore I, Hatonn, do “recommend” that the Congressional Senate of the White House of common people or “Commonalities” do henceforth acclaim with themselves to no longer meet the criteria for which they were first elected and secondly, summoned by the President elect Barak Obama, to meet with him as a potential new cabinet. And what exactly is wanted by the Crown Prince elect of Saudi Strain, in a manner of speaking? A gloat against the American press and all the lies exposed and King Abdullah of Saudi Arabia will have no less, otherwise he will neglect, and bold that one please, dear one, to summon any more American ambassadors to his realm of highness, and will damn them all to purgatory which, as far as he is concerned, (is) right where they belong. And Seila was right about that even years ago. He should have listened.

But what of Russia on this, Reni, my boy! We have seldom seen more antagonism toward the ruination of Russia by the U.S.S.R. Now, remember the U.S.S.R. had diverse leadership, and remember the pattern is one which does differ now from that which is now in place. Remember the Czar, Reni? Of course you do. But did that system, that seldom held goodly system, also differ from the plans of the Bolsheviks? Well we know that in time the overthrow of Czar Nicholas was a plan of utter trickery by, not of the Bolsheviks, but the United States of America, or should I say, the planned stages of Israel. For the Jews of Israel plotted to have the Czar and his family murdered in order to stage a coup de tat on all those beings who loved the Czar, his family and their Royal rags to riches way for the people, and then we had the Bolsheviks convince the top Regales to follow their way forward, which they most certainly did.

Don't stop now, Seila, for I, Hatonn, have scarce begun. Now what did Russia of the twentieth century have to do with Vietnam and all the sick ploys against them by General in Chief, General Macarthur of the United States Royal British brigade? Everything and nothing. The everything gathered intelligence data and from the scam of the Bay of Pigs, which were nothing but leaflets dropped from the skies onto the sea and land by American Green Berets, and the nothing because similar structure of how the United States treated other nations beyond its borders, way beyond its borders, was rebuked by Russia who had learned their lesson well enough in Afghanistan. Good grief, finally someone learned something! (Note: lost transmission) (6:02 pm)

Commander Hatonn's back on the bridge, Sir. He had no time to waste. – Lieutenant Commander Korgi. (6:04 pm)

6:19 pm

The triune of the United States, Israel, and Japan are not good for Lebanon. Indeed, why is Japan involved? Simply because they have been told their forebearers were troddon on by the Lebanese military dressed in American war rags and their truism coerced the Zionist trait upon Japan. Pearl Harbour was just a consequence of this debauchery and Hezbollah had nothing, of course, to do with it, and up to now they grouped together and are the protectors not only of Lebanon but of others. Most honourable men indeed! (6:20 pm)

August 10, 2009, 4:20 pm

Good morning, Uthrania Seila, or should I say, afternoon, almost evening. Just a short quip, please, and then we will move onto a brand new topic. Hatonn in for the briefing. Ahem. New paragraph, please, punctually.

The GOP are losing one-tenth of their percent earnings over the former Watergate Scandal - and no wonder. When Barak Obama went skinny dipping in the Franks' own bank account giving the loser Brahman a co-skill in the banking industry of Luxemburg, then the Jewish regime in Israel, or should I say Zionist regime of Israel, fox-trotted down into the sink of utter despair and because of their disloyalty to Obama, all hell fell into the kitchen sink. So much for paradoxes anyway and a modest hello to all those who are desperately trying to fix my words, or to even understand my verse. So onto the next.

WATERGATE AND THE PROXY REGIME OF MONTANA

It's interesting how people think that in a matter of time the Watergate Scandal will fix itself aright. Good God! What on earth is the matter with them?! Watergate, Lincoln, Obama, Barak Obama, Sultan of Oman, Winnipeg Dukabors, etc. etc, and etc! What makes people forget that not all systems are entwined one with another, yet catapulting them all within the system of economics the way it still stands under Zionism, Capitalist Zionism, Frankfurt, Germany still has a place in my heart. And why is that? It is the easiest currency to divulge in any part of the country - at least under Lenin it was. And what about Hitler, himself? He wasn't all as bad as they made him out to be to ensure the Canaanite Jews reclaimed, as they say, Israel back into the Arab punctuality of the region. Horrors and that!

Well, sorry Seila, but that is all the time that I have today. Please place time signature on this part and leave us alone as we discuss whatever can be done with the time line for Angorius, your earth, before all hell really and truly breaks out. Thank you. Hatonn out! (4:34 pm)

August 11, 2009, 11:01 am

Hello, Seila, little duck, as you are called in realms on high. It is simply beautiful where you all are, I suppose, but you should be here with us. The brilliant orange beaches, bluish green skies, and the turquoise bays, have all been illuminated at night with starlight craft. Oh, I could go on and on, but down to the grit. The nitty gritty of life there on earth where you still unfortunately are. Next paragraph please.

Oxidorn 3 is a new planet in the hemisphere of Radius One, and this they at NASA will find on their Hubble telescope for the last time. It is a bit of trickery, to be sure, for it is on the outer rim of Galexas 3, Galexas 4, in that little ribbon, to be sure. Now down to earth.

What on earth is Israel doing with the United Nations this August, 2009? Just a durst of probability which takes the whole United Nations DOWN to the ground level again. Oh, what treachery! No stocks left for those gents who sit around the round table and decide what to do with her, that giant base right in the middle of Palestine! The only good thing about all of this concerning Israel, is that de Hague puts the regime on trial in front of the entire world and the world, especially the Christian cults, will understand for the first time in their lives that Israel, that special little "duck," will stand no longer for Christianity and isn't that a nice surprise to follow in the news. For they will no longer be allowed to contain their evil and wicked deeds from the western mainstream public, and that will definitely CHANGE the way things are done in the UN, and in August 10th this will have already have happened - 2010. Big number. Big goal.

As a rule we do not, rather never, do we work with dates for the human race on your planet are so slothful concerning anything which needs done, but in this case it will definitely happen that quickly and we wish you to know only these few facts for now.

Now, concerning Lebanon, Hezbollah, those fine chaps are arsenal ready for any Israeli attack. The Prime Minister Saad Harare knew just what he was doing when he employed Hezbollah, for he was sadly afraid that Israel would try to murder himself as well. Saad Harare and Hezbollah are quite the friends and that is exactly why Sheik Nasrallah was so delighted Saad got in. Got to go my love, and Sophram is on the mark this morning and sends to you both his best wishes and, of course, love. Hatonn out. Please place in time co-ordinate, love. (11:18 am)

1:58 pm

Hello, little one. Hatonn back in for a very brief moment. Summerland in North Nevada is a tender place to do a little recruiting of my own. (Sigh) In any case, it is not President Obama who is the little man at the helm in the Pentagon. It is Lacy, and he is one heck of a conqueror of Israeli lam policy. Eh heh.

Into the lot of car ruining park lots in Washington D.C. credits lam with a lot of soiled park lots as oil and gas come streaming out of the credentials of GM, General Motors, and, ahem, the Mayor of Georgia prime gave to Congress in Washington D.C. a "film" of the dukabore singles night and now Michael Jackson has competition, if you know what we mean, for all those who found and believed his guilt. I don't but that doesn't matter anyway what I think about that from here on out, for this world and its nasty participants have all but conquered the United States military bases, and yes, I did say "bases" from that side on out. Goodness, how time flies when you're having fun, as they say. So just one more quip and I will call it a night.

Diefenbaker, the Prime Minister of nowhere and President of somewhere in the far off distant past, placed in a report of reprieve directly into the car industry off Lake Huron. "Detroit is not getting one more coin! That is all they deserve!" he wrote to Congress of Massachusetts! And how could he do that?! Only because he held the stakes in the company of General Motors, and as a major stakeholder in Chrysler as well, they made him "honorary President" of the company. He was a wild and wicked man. History shows him thus, but then those textbooks never got out. No surprise in the least in comparison to what the textbooks out of the U.N. sent to Iraq said about the invasion, occupation and squalor of the Iraqi people after Israel and their stooge troops invaded Iraq in the beginning of the twentieth century and really just before if you count the CIA invasion in the underground of Kurdish territory.

And what will Saddam do when he gets back on the throne?! Send for the prophets who promised him the blueprint for a life for his people unlike any other nation has, including the Sheik wealthy Saudi Arabia. Well King Abdullah wants them too, and for the protection of those two little ones over there in Canada north, we withhold their names. Good day. Commander in Chief Hatonn out on transmittal frequency 4.2 duchmont. Adieu. (2:15 pm)

Hatonn in for a short junction. Teasing Nixon over a piece of chiffon pie just wasn't the answer and neither was the steak that Nixon ate. "Oh well," for poisoning the old man the Dukabores thought. Well it just didn't work. Hatonn in also for a bit of cuisine living. A thought disturbed me a little while back and that was when I heard that the naval boys out at Lexington, Germany, Squad 5 and 6 were actually "enjoying" the way the war was going in Afghanistan after being in solitary "refindment" in Iraq. You figure out that word. In fact, it was Lucy Chermile herself who helped each and every one of those boys into the sack, as they say, and she was hopping mad when the fare did not arrive. Ah, so much for solitary confinement anyhow.

Now next on the agenda is the Ukraine, El Salvador, and Great Britain, and how the shadow of the Zionist nature has already permeated all there is to see and know in those countries. The Jewish nature seldom merits a compromise with others when they want their way and unfortunately for them, Prime Minister of Great Britain, Gordon Brown, will not fall any longer for their torture of his ministers, lock stock and barrel! Good for him, at least someone is waking up!

Now, why, my readers, am I telling you these well-known facts? Simply because someone has to. Read it in the papers you will not. Hear it on the news broadcast, you will not. Watch it in the papers, cartoon style, and on the television, you will not. And maybe not even on the quickly "censored" internet. And this is precisely why these books of ours will go out into the mainstream public soon after Israel is severely conquered; which is a "yes." We will live to shortly see that. You see, they are sitting on so many warheads, and many Israeli soldiers have just had enough of their comrades and their fickle way with the brother Palestinians, and no god-fearing people could possibly make their way into heaven, any good heaven with what they, the Israeli Jews, are doing to others, including in Afghanistan, Iraq, Turkey, yes Turkey, and Calgary Alberta, with their special "squid fund" for ruining other people's lives. Ahem.

Are the prophets safe? For the meantime, yes; but no, they will never be harmed again for as long as the main Captain of the Stargazer Intrepid is at the helm, which will be for quite some time. He is famous among the quadrants. He is also infamous among the regions for those who "hose" others down as Israel is doing to Palestine. Great work this and Saudi Arabia is getting ready for their own battle with Israel because they trust Netanyahu not one bit, and because of it they have acquired a little of that ammo themselves, just to make things a little more even, but only if necessary, for the Holy Qu'ran says, they state that to take a life is surmount to taking your own and neither is either safe, nor to put it quite bluntly, ethical. Hatonn out. Back on mainstream news later in the day. Thank you again for your most cordial assistance at any time I call due to lack of time periods in my life. (4:19 pm)

August 12, 2009, 12:04 pm

The remittance of oil receipts into the Gulf War account out of Washington, D.C. is absolutely draconian, to say the least. Hatonn in here for a final say on all things of importance. Please continue, scribe, at your earliest convenience. Hatonn out.

In Washington D.C. there are always two things to watch out for, and those are tackion waves coming out of the Federal CIA building and Pentagon. That machine they use is operating from Alaska, U.S.A., and what does the tackion belt do? It secretly messes with the mind, the brain and applaud them not for this is why so many "uncongenial and unwilling" congressional participants end up in those places they only send the insane, and could they ones tell ye ones a thing or two about brain surgery!

And secondly, the Congressional Belt loop which simply means that in Congress from the Halls of Yale and Harvard there are Bones people in all high places, Masonic second rate in comparison, but still second down the ladder, and these people will loop around to their mates, whether be female or male in order to keep their kind of order on the high seats on the Common in West Bank, Palestine, and the lefties in Canada, especially in the Canadian House of Commons in Parliament.

My, my socks are getting dirty, soiled with all the footwork I have had to accomplish in order to get this information down and out to you, the reader, and therefore I hope that ye ones appreciate every word. Hatonn out. (12:56 pm)

August 18, 2009, 1:19 pm

Congenial are we not, little ones of Lord Sananda's earthenmost troops upon this day in the rain forests of Ecuador?! In any other simulation of most deserted strife, I, Hatonn, Lord of the Underworld - Australia of course - concerted only one more item to my life, and that is to see the little ones of the Gulf Stream "Felix" out of danger, rife with living expenses and joyous and happy all of the time. Ah well, we do hope for many things we just do not get at any given moment in time. So! On with the topic at hand and that is the Congressional House of Parliament, Canadian style.

Lickity split! they separated the House from the ruinations of the Afghani war! The people of Canada found out that Lucic, the Administrators daughter of the Gulf War agenda, just caught the virus, the pig flue, or whatever you would like to call it, and digested just enough turkey for thanksgiving to send Afghanistan a present in a poke. Well enough sultry humor for one day. Let us try a little more "modern" English in a more presentable format, shall we? Good. Then here goes.

The English lady miss Monterey just sold King Philip an earring diamond from the great swamp land in Nicaragua. What does this have indeed to do with the Canadian parliament, dears? Nothing much EXCEPT the forgery was a lovely cashew decked-out in charlatan diamonds. This is a precept going on in Canadian lawyers group out of Huxtington, Minnesota. Now you have got to figure this one out, dear ones, for my neck is already in the stock for just telling you this much. Many many dear souls are going to the brigade or brig, better put, for forgery of this sort, and if I am found out to have squealed upon them then I would be better off dead. However, since I no longer reside upon the nest egg of planet earth Angorius, I am relatively safe for now.

What of the Canadian parliament in the year 2011? Only God knows. Literally. We of the post mortem of all governmental credentials do know however that the President Obama of the United States coveted circle of circus geniuses will press Prime Minister Harper of the Canadian congress to prolong his... in Afghanistan because Obama, the facetious little man, is daring Canada to quit in the face of, now get this one, little beasts of the field, as Netanyahu calls you, NATO THROWING IN THE TOWEL ONCE AND FOR ALL. And bold those words please, Uthrania Seila. Thank you.

The seasoned retroactiveness of all cantankerous people stand to gain Netanyahu's utmost and farthestmost pleasure. "Just give me the keys once again to the Pentagon," Netanyahu replies, "and I'll just leave the CIA and White House alone to the black man and family within. I run the Pentagon and you, Obama, better darn well keep out of my way." And what did Obama do, little seekers of the truth? Just stood there speechless and thought about all that his old Pastor would have done had he been in his place. Now, this is old news to be sure, but for record's sake we like to record everything down.

So what happened in Calgary, Alberta, dear ones? Nothing really, and everything probably. What offshoots desire to shoot game, the deer, the antler, the moose, the coyote, the wolves, the white horned owl, and countless of other little mercies? Calgary is an offshoot of the White House in Luxemburg, D.C., and there is definitely a relatively good reason for this. District of Columbia holds the diatram of "instincts" against the treason of the Mob. The mafia, the cold slicers, the feet swindlers, and many other acronyms, to be sure. We have the Jewish partisans, the Mafia out of York Street, Manhattan, the swindlers and drug dealers out of the CIA, FBI, South American Congress, those partisans who "think" they know what goes on in the Mexican jailhouses against Americans, but really know absolutely nothing about anything and get paid regardless. And then there are the swindlers in Congressional Senate who play party games in order to get themselves re-elected whilst doing, again, nothing for their constituents!

And why am I seemingly rambling on and on and on? Because this will all come together in the long run, and then we will see who is efficient, correct, and right on the mark. Then we will be listened to for who writes such as I do, save that of Sananda Jmmanuel, who traipse off on one direction with his words and then meets in the middle with the explanation.

In any case, that is enough for one day and study my words, for only through them will ye be forewarned of all disasters to come, my funny friends, and then will each the one of ye be more than a little wise with a fortitude to match. Commander in Chief, Hatonn out. (1:49 pm)

August 20, 2009, 9:18 am

There is an old saying, loves, and all little sitting ducks, that goes this way: if a miller took a brane and melted it down into a stone, what would he have? A millstone. If he took the millstone and once again melted it down what then would he have? A stone the size of a pebble. And why? Because the molecular change would have occurred to such a degree that the stone would have shrunk. And why exactly am I telling you this, dear ones? Because in Washington, the think-tank of the nation of the United States of America, the millstone of Afghanistan is about to shrink down in the people's eyes to that of a pebble in comparison to that of their own Washington D.C. seeded problems. That is why.

Compare the millstone in molecules to lies by the establishment and then disintegrate those lies back into pebbles of truth. No matter which way you look at it, Washington and their boys and girls lose it.

If perhaps happenstance goes lethargic then we would mayhaps have a goodly chance in recoiling from all the war efforts, and perhaps and then maybe Henry Kissinger, whose health is rapidly disintegrating, goes hypervent before his time, and then the wall of looming presence over Palestine comes down, CRASHING DOWN, before its time, and the wits of the Israeli Jews scream HOLOCAUSTE ON US ONCE AGAIN BY THE UNITED NATIONS! THE SCUM AND SCAM BUSTERS OF THE EARTH! (bold that one please), and then the Washington bums out of Luxemburg, Ohio, scream: WE WANT DETROIT PUT BACK ON THEIR FEET! CAR GARAGES! CAR INDUSTRIES! CAR LOTS! ALL FOR THE PEOPLE! NOT FOR THE CONGRESS! NOT FOR THE CORPORATIONS! NOT FOR THE PARLIAMENT OF CANADIAN TROOPADORS EITHER! BUT FOR BOTH PEOPLES IN BOTH DUAL COUNTRIES! WE, THE PEOPLE, TAKE BACK OUR MONEY, OUR COUNTRY AND OUR GOVERNMENT! OBAMA OUT! OBAMA AND YOUR FAMILY OUT! YOU TRAITOR! OUT! WE, THE PEOPLE ARE NOW BACK IN CHARGE, AND WE WRITE ON YOUR GRAVESTONES THE EPITAPH OF FINANCE!

GOOD FOR PINOCIO WHO CUT THE NOSE OF THE CHARLATAN IN WASHINGTON! OUT WITH CONGRESS AND THE SENATE! THE CANADIANS ARE DOING THE SAME! WE ARE JOINING HANDS WITH THEM ALL ACROSS THE BORDER OF LUXINGBURG, OHIO! BRAVE THEM ALL IN MONTANA AND NEVADA! DOWN WITH AREAS THIS AND THAT! DOWN WITH THE BASES WORLD WIDE! LET OUR ENEMIES HAVE MERCY UPON OUR SOULS! BLESS AMERICA ONCE AGAIN! BLESS THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA ONCE, PLEASE, AGAIN!

WE, THE PEOPLE, ARE STRICKEN WITH TOO MANY PLAGUES AND DIAMOND DRILLING IN FOREGN FIELDS! STEALING, PILLAGING! MURDERING FOR PROFIT OF OUR CONGRESSIONAL JEWISH LEADERS! DOWN WITH WASHINGTON D.C.! WE TAKE BACK OUR COUNTRY! WE TAKE BACK THE HEART OF AMERICA AND MAKE AMERICA WHAT IT ALWAYS SHOULD HAVE BEEN! WE WRITE OF OURSELVES A NEW CONSTITUTION! WHEN THEY AND THE PEOPLE OF EARTH, ANGORIUS, HAVE WON OVER THE LOCK, PRISONS, THE STOCKS FOR THE PEOPLE'S NECKS USING THE FINANCIAL SYSTEM OVER THEM, AND THE BARREL, PORK BARRELING THE PEOPLE'S FINANCIAL ACCUMMULATION, AND THE GUN, THE MILITARY GENIUS.

AND ON AND ON IT GOES!

Commander in Chief Hatonn, Esquire of the nations of the world!
FINALLY! (9:46 am)

August 21, 2009, 11:00 am

Commander Hatonn of the Esquire speaking. Now, do you know where I am and what I am on? Clever little tykes, if you do. Next sentence structure, please, scribe.

On with the show, as they say, as Turkey, I'm Hungary, and the Philadelphia experiment showed them all how to destroy Afghani in the caves. What a sham, for it did them absolutely no good but passed time in a bottle and now off with the encryption and on with the goods.

"If'n it be rightly so, Massa, then we will take the jake up the river and moor her just off Cutlass's plantation. If'n it be all right missus."

"Do it then, man! Just get the job done!"

"O.K., alright, massa sir, mistress, it is getting done." Stated the poor old Oklahoma farmer.

Thought it was an old plantation slave talking from the southern United States before the civil war? Wrong again. This is today. This is upcoming. This is what the American schools and colleges are turning out. This is social catastrophe!

"Why, massa sir, must we send you some more bombs when you got so many already?" states the President Obama of the Plantation robbers to Israel.

See the difference, kin? No? Think again. History repeats itself, does it not? Education is everything. Education of a man or a woman repeats whether they be a lady and a gent, or a slave to the words of another.

Hatonn commandeering nothing more at the moment. Ten minutes on my side are already up. Got to go. Hatonn out. (11:09 pm)
